Last Lecture report

Committee chair Golam Mannan reported on a very successful 2010 Last Lecture by Professor Emerita of History and Religious Studies Jan Shipp, held on April 30 in the IUPUI Library's Lilly Auditorium. ### Annual Meeting Committee report

The Senior Academy annual meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 26, from 2:30-4:30 P.M. Giles Hoyt reviewed the parking, menu, and accommodations to be provided by the Athenaeum. Because of a death in the family, Dean Sukhatme will not be available to speak; however, a representative of his office will be invited to bring greetings. The committee was pleased with the response for volunteers who will give brief talks about their post-retirement activities. The speakers will be Valerie Chang (Social Work) who is a visiting professor at Addis Ababa University in Ethiopia, and Patrick McGeever (Political Science and Liberal Arts) who will present a reading for his latest play.

Harriet asked for volunteers to greet attendees and assist Dottie Swinney with distributing nametags. She also asked for readers for roles in the McGeever play. Several people volunteered. Annual reports will be available on the tables. Various members suggested that a number of people who have been especially supportive of SA in the past year should be invited to the annual meeting. They include Susan Christian, Bill Heller, Sue Herrell, Shelley Hunter, Suzanne Vick, and Kevin Walsh.

Scholarship Committee report

Marge Applegate reported that the committee has agreed on scholarship recipients and is awaiting acceptances.

Communications Committee report

Walt Linne reported that the committee needs a volunteer to replace Neal Duerden, who has done an excellent job writing and editing the Senior Sentinel, which in the past year has taken a substantial leap forward by using the web-based format. Walt reported that the committee will look for people to centralize the communications process, handle publicity and promotion, and manage the Senior Academy web site. Walt also wants to initiate a Senior Academy letterhead and a symbol, which might be used on a pin.

Other Business

- Giles Hoyt, Shirley Newhouse, Leon Rand, and Harriet Wilkins agreed to meet to work out a budget for next year.
- Harriet relayed the suggestion that a plaque listing the recipients of the Bepko Medallion should be produced and placed in the Senior Academy room in the Campus Center.
- Noel Duerden suggested that there should be recognition of past SA presidents.
- Harriet Wilkins agreed to send a special note of condolence to Dean Sukhatme.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:15 A.M.

Respectfully submitted
Mary Grove, Secretary
