They're the Pride of Indiana

The board of directors of the IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis joins with the rest of the IU family in celebrating the excellence of our basketball teams. We cheered when the Jaguars men reached the championship game of the Mid-Continent basketball tournament for the first time in their short history in Division I. We watched with delight as the Hoosier women claimed the Big Ten Tournament trophy here in Indianapolis. We then spent three breathless weeks as the Hoosier men took us on a joy ride to Atlanta.

We send our thanks to Coach Mike Davis, Coach Kathi Bennett, Coach Ron Hunter, their staffs, and their teams for representing our university with distinction and for giving us yet more reasons to experience Indiana pride and IU excellence.

IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis Serving the Community

A group of 10 IU alumni volunteered at a Pacers basketball game on Feb. 23 selling 50/50 raffle tickets for the Pacers Foundation. Through ticket sales, the group raised $2,170, with $1,085 going to charity to provide financial assistance for projects that benefit Indiana's youth. The community service committee would like to thank all those who donated their time and energy!

The committee is in the middle of a year-long book drive for public school libraries in the four counties we serve, collecting new and gently used books suitable for grades K-12. We have held book drives at various club events during the past several months and have collected around 150 books and $75 in donations. Watch for information about the next book drive in announcements of upcoming events.

The second year of the "Birthday Cakes for Kids" program is underway. The community service committee has teamed up with the Julian Center, a shelter for abused women and children, to provide birthday cakes for children who celebrate a birthday while living at the shelter. Thanks to all club members who have participated in this worthwhile and rewarding project.

The committee is in the process of organizing a "Keep America Beautiful" event to be held this spring in Indianapolis.

Your Club Needs You

Do you have a flair for organizing events? Is marketing your strength? Does the idea of working on projects that enrich our community appeal to you? Do you have a special interest in encouraging talented students to attend IU?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then let us hear from you! The board of directors of the IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis invites you to join one of our committees and share in the excitement and pleasure of being connected to your university.

We need enthusiastic people to help us in the following areas: Community Service, Membership, Publicity, Scholarship, Special Events, and Young Alumni.

Let us know your area of interest, and we'll plug you in! For more information, contact Cathy Randall at 4285 Springwood Trail, Indianapolis, Ind. 46228; (317) 216-0695; or crandall828@msn.com.

IU Night at the Indians Game

Saturday, Aug. 17

Gather up your family and head out to Victory Field – it's IU Alumni Night with the Indianapolis Indians!

Pack a picnic. Sing "Take Me Out To The Ballgame." Do the seventh inning stretch with Rowdy. Catch a home run ball. Mingle with IU friends. Now doesn't this sound like fun?

We have reserved a space on the grass for IU alumni, family, and friends to picnic, visit, and cheer the Indians as they take on the Toledo Mud Hens. And here's a bonus – it's Ben Sheets Bobblehead Night! (Currently a Milwaukee Brewers pitcher, Sheets has played for the Indians.)

Gates open at 3:30 p.m.; Game time is 5 p.m.

Victory Field rules allow an 18-inch cooler. No glass containers or alcohol can be carried in, but you can stuff your cooler full of good eats, soft drinks, and water in cans or plastic. And of course, there is always plenty of tasty ballpark food at the concession stands.

Cost is $8 for adults and $6 for children (12 and under). The deadline for reservations is July 26. Tickets will be mailed after the deadline.

For reservations, mail the form below with payment or credit card orders may be placed online at our Web site www.alumni.indiana.edu/clubs/indy. If you have questions, contact Susan Lindgren at susanl@angieslist.com or (317) 259-9405.
