Abbey Chambers,
Academic Advisor and Recruiter,
Associate Faculty in Art History

Welcome, Abbey!

Abbey has been with Herron since 2008 as staff member of the Basile Center, but has recently joined the Student Services staff as part-time Academic Advisor, and teaches Art Appreciation and American Art classes here at Herron.

"I want to advise students because I have always had a strong sense of direction in my life and I want to help those who might not or those who need a bit of encouragement to do what they love and follow their dreams. Plus I LOVED art school and I want to help make it a great experience for others."

Herron Lectures

STEFAN PETRANEK LECTURE

September 14, 12 - 1 p.m.,
Campus Center, room 148

Herron School of Art and Design Professor Stefan Petranek will present a lecture as part of the IUPUI Medical Humanities-Health Studies seminar series.

Professor Petranek will talk about his Genetics Portrait Project. This photographic project is an artistic investigation of how individuals in United States society perceive genetic research and the impact it will have on society's future.

This project explores the social implications of genetic research, capturing a snapshot of our current perception of how it will shape the future.

For more information about the seminar, please contact Kelly at kgas-coin@iupui.edu or 317-278-1669.

Get Involved with ASA!

WHAT IS ASA?

Active Student Artists serves as Herron School of Art and Design's Student Council. Our purpose is to enhance the creative, intellectual and social environment at Herron.

- + We provide a voice for the students in the administration of our school. Working closely with administration, faculty, and staff.
- + We unify the creative endeavors of all of the departments of Herron.
- + We strive to establish and maintain a vibrant, vital community.
- + We maintain a strong and visible relationship with the main campus of IUPUI
- + We plan field trips and other social events
- + We support YOUR student interests

+ Are you interested in creating a more lively community at Herron?

+ Do you want to participate in and help plan fun events?

+ Do YOU have any other ideas of what ASA can do for you and our community?

ASA has some good ideas to help make this year great, but we need your help!

Office of External Affairs

HELP US HELP YOU

The Herron Office of External Affairs is your voice to promote you as students on and off campus. If you will be exhibiting in a show at Herron, on campus or out in the community we can use our resources to help get the word out. Did you know that:

- ◆ We have nearly 7,000 subscribers to our online newsletter HerrOnline?
- ◆ Or that we have more than 2,000 Facebook and 400 Twitter followers?
- ◆ Or, that we average more than 10,000 hits to our website every month?

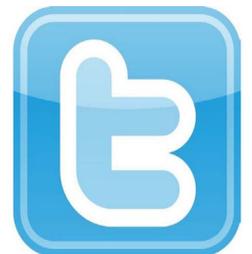

Here are some tips on what you can do to help us help you:

1. Submit your information to us as early as possible. To get info onto JagNews on campus we must have it at least 2 weeks in advance.
2. If you have created a promotional card or flyer send it to us as a jpeg or pdf. Be sure to send both front and back.
3. When you email the info to use be sure to include the dates, times and locations as well as some information about you - area of study, year of graduation, a brief artist statement.
4. Send your information to: robbullo@iupui.edu. And if you have questions email them. Asking questions is a good thing.

Make sure you, and your friends, are connected. Be sure to “like” Herron School of Art and Design on Facebook or follow us @HerronSchool on Twitter.

You can sign up to receive HerrOnline on the Herron School of Art and Design homepage at www.herron.iupui.edu and invite your family and friends to join us also.*

Things to Consider

THE INDY PRIDE SCHOLARSHIP has been established as a way for Indy Pride, Inc. to reward current and future students attending an accredited Indiana-based university or college who are making significant contributions to the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgendered (LGBT) community. The scholarship also provides for those who are members of the LGBT community who have experienced a lack of support to attend an institute of higher education. For additional information on the scholarship, the process and the online application process, please follow this link: <http://www.indyprideinc.org/community/scholarship.htm>.

ART ELEMENT NOW (AEN)

is a website resource dedicated to emerging college art students and professionals. AEN assists artists in their transition into the professional world of art by connecting them to the local and national arts communities. Artists will learn to connect and network with other artists to develop into a well-rounded professional artist. Visit their website at www.artelementnow.com.

DEWITT JONES (National Geographic Photographer) Lecture

The closing session of the upcoming Coalition of Urban and Metropolitan Universities Conference is open to all members of the IUPUI community, free of charge.

The featured speaker is acclaimed photojournalist, Dewitt Jones. Jones is recognized as a world class lecturer. His knowledge of the creative process, his relaxed and genuine style, and his ability to communicate make his presentations truly outstanding.

For more information, please visit http://events.iupui.edu/event/?event_id=5294.

LOOKING FOR A JOB?

The Finish Line, Inc. will have a table on the 2nd floor of the Campus Center on Tuesday, September 13 from 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. to meet students for part time customer service positions.

Indiana Repertory Theatre is currently in need of help in their paint shop. These positions are not staff and will be occasional based on need. Theatre specific experience is not necessary. Please contact Jane Robison, General Manager, at jrobison@irtlive.com with any questions you might have.
