Law School

The ‘Best Value’ Law Schools of 2011. Once again, Indiana University School of Law-Indianapolis has been selected by the National Jurist preLaw magazine as one of 60 Best Value law schools in the nation. The magazine has honored law schools with a “good value” since 2004. In its selection criteria, Best Value ranking takes into account: in-state tuition, average student debt, the percentage of graduates employed nine months after graduation, and bar passage rates.

Timothy J. Kennedy Memorial Moot Court Fund Established at the Law School. On August 22, 2011, the Indiana University School of Law-Indianapolis, together with Mike Miller, John Muller and Tilden Mendelson, founding partners of Montross, Miller, Muller, Mendelson & Kennedy, LLP, announced the establishment of the Timothy J. Kennedy Memorial Moot Court Fund. The endowed fund is being created with a $50,000 gift to honor Mr. Kennedy’s many contributions to the practice of law, and in support of the newly-created National Professional Responsibility Moot Court Competition, which will be organized and hosted by our law school for the first time next March 9–10, 2012. Mr. Kennedy was an active volunteer in moot court and trial advocacy programs here at IU School of Law-Indianapolis and, as a founding partner in his firm, practiced law for over 30 years in the areas of medical malpractice and personal injury.

Law Review Dedicates Issue to Memory of Professor Mary Mitchell. The Indiana Law Review dedicated Issue 3 of Volume 44 as a special tribute to the memory of Professor Mary Harter Mitchell who passed away in 2009. ILR Editor-in-Chief for Volume 44, Kate Mercer-Lawson, indicated that articles were specifically solicited for the issue in areas of topics that were of interest/passion to Professor Mitchell, such as prisoners' rights and women lawyers. Several tributes by faculty colleagues were also included, as well as some of Professor Mitchell's poetry. To order a copy of this special publication, please contact the Indiana Law Review, 317-274-4039.

National Professional Responsibility Moot Court Competition. The Indiana University School of Law-Indianapolis Moot Court Board is pleased to announce that that the First Annual National Professional Responsibility Moot Court Competition will be held here in Indianapolis on March 9–10, 2012. This two-day competition will be open to all ABA-accredited law schools throughout the United States and will focus on a question of professional responsibility. The Competition will offer students an outstanding opportunity to engage in advocacy on cutting edge professional responsibility concerns. The moot will test skills in appellate brief writing and oral advocacy on two specific issues drawn from real opinions, providing first-hand experience in interpreting professional responsibility standards and scholarly resources. All rounds of the competition will take place at IU School of Law-Indianapolis.

Student Affairs Office

Do you have a quick question about law school policies and procedures? Need a referral to another IUPUI department? Need assistance completing a form? Not sure where to go for help? Then take the time to contact the Student Affairs Office in Suite 119. Walk-in hours are Monday – Thursday, 2:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m. with a 15 minute slot on a first-come, first-served basis for quick questions to be answered by one of our advisors. Attention
All Law Students!

Registration Day for J.D. Students

Friday, November 4th

All J.D. students, including 1Ls, must register for their classes on Friday, November 4, 2011. LL.M. and S.J.D. students must contact Anthony Masseria amasseri@iupui.edu concerning registration. Schedule corrections and updates are still being made on OneStart. Be sure to wait until the week of registration to put courses in your shopping cart.

For instructions in registering for your classes, go to: SpringRegistrationInstructions.doc.

Attention December 2011 and May, August 2012 Graduates!

Composite pictures for students graduating in December 2011, May and August 2012 will be taken on Tuesday, Oct. 25, from 11:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m. and again on Wednesday, Oct. 26, from 12:00–7:00 p.m. in the law school atrium. There will be no sitting fee to be on the class composite; however, if a student wishes to receive a color copy of the composite and six wallet-sized pictures of their chosen pose, a charge of $18 will be required. The photographer will have more detailed information at the time of sitting regarding procedures for purchasing additional photos.

Mark your calendars for October 25th and 26th! There will be a make-up date on Friday, Dec. 9, if you are unable to attend one of the regular scheduled photo sessions. E-mail the SBA if you have any questions at iulawsba@iupui.edu.

The New IndyLaw Digest
A Weekly Edition
Courtesy of
Student Bar Association

In an effort to decrease the number of e-mails sent to the student body, the Indy-Law Digest will be the new means of communication between student organizations and students. Each Monday during the semesters, an e-mail will be sent with all of the events for the next two weeks. Student organizations may then send one reminder e-mail on the day of the event. All digest items can also be found at:

<http://indylaw.indiana.edu/net/students/SBA/>.

Scholarship Opportunity for 2Ls

The Miller Scholarship Trust has announced the "Annalee Webb Scholarship" in the amount of $3,000 available for the current 2011-2012 academic school year. This scholarship is available to second-year IU School of Law-Indianapolis law students who exhibit financial need and are working while in law school to pay for the cost of a legal education. Priority will be given over grades with consideration reflected towards a GPA of at least 2.3 or above.

To apply for this scholarship, please visit <http://www.millerlawscholarship.com> to complete the online application. Deadline for all applications is Tuesday, Nov. 15, 2011.

October 28, 2011
Counter-terrorism Simulation
Wynne Courtroom and
Conour Atrium, Inlow Hall

Professor Shawn Boyne will reprise the counter-terrorism simulation concept in her Seminar in Comparative National Security Law with a new simulation scheduled for October 28, 2011, from 8:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. (Watch the action on a live link on our website: www.indylaw.indiana.edu.)

Recapping from the first simulation: At 9:00 a.m. on Friday, October 23, 2009, news reports circulated throughout the law school that the Pakistani embassy in Washington, D.C. had been bombed. In the Wynne Courtroom, the President of the United States was just coming to terms with this situation when, moments later, it was reported that a “dirty bomb” had exploded in downtown Indianapolis. The governor and mayor immediately attempted to obtain more information as they jockeyed for position scheduling press conferences in the press room in the Conour Atrium. In short, it was not “business as usual” at Inlow Hall. The news reports and the activities surrounding the aftermath of the simulated bombings were part of one of the most complex and ambitious experiential education exercises ever undertaken at the law school. Students in Professor Boyne’s Seminar in Comparative National Security Law, along with students from the IU School of Public and Environmental Affairs, participated in a groundbreaking counter-terrorism simulation that placed them in the vortex of terrorist attacks. They had to develop coordinated and cohesive responses—in real time.

Gerard N. Magliocca joined the faculty at the IU School of Law-Indianapolis following two years as an associate with Covington & Burling and one year as a clerk for Judge Guido Calabresi on the Second Circuit. In 2007, his book on Andrew Jackson, Andrew Jackson and the Constitution: The Rise and Fall of Generational Regimes, was the subject of an hour-long program on C-Span's "Book TV." In the fall of 2008, Professor Magliocca held the Fulbright-Dow Distinguished Research Chair of the Roosevelt Study Center in Middelburg, The Netherlands. He is also a Regular blogger on Concurring Opinions and Balkanization. His most recent book, The Tragedy of William Jennings Bryan: Constitutional Law and the Politics of Backlash, was published in June of this year by Yale University Press. He has been published widely in law journals and is often quoted in national media. He received the Best New Professor Award from the student body in 2004 and the Black Cane (Most Outstanding Professor) Award in 2006.

Financial Aid Hours

Jennifer Vines, Assistant Director/Financial Aid liaison for the law school, is available for appointments at Inlow Hall to discuss financial aid. An appointment book is located in the Student Affairs office on the 1st floor, Rm. 119, and appointments are typically held on Monday and Tuesday afternoons on the 3rd floor in Rm. 387. If you need to drop off paperwork for Ms. Vines on a day she is not at Inlow Hall, you may drop it off in the Student Affairs office.

The main Financial Aid office is located in the Campus Center, 420 University Blvd., on the 2nd floor in Rm. CE 250A. When Ms. Vines is not available, you may stop by and meet with a counselor or make a personal payment. Walk-in advising hours are: Monday–Thursday, 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.; Friday, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Additional contact information: (317) 274-4162; Fax 317-274-5930; E-mail: finaid@iupui.edu. A drop box is available for your convenience in the north hallway outside the Student Financial Services area to collect documents and/or payments. Make sure your name and university ID number appears on every page of the forms.

Free Wellness Screenings

Student Health Services is offering students FREE Wellness Screenings including: blood pressure, cholesterol and glucose levels, body fat analysis/body mass index, height/weight, vision, pregnancy, and strep test. Wellness consultations and resources are also available. Wellness Screenings are offered Monday through Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. in Campus Center Student Health CE 213. Walk-ins and appointments are welcome. For more information, visit our web site or call 317-274-WELL.

Faculty, Students & Staff in the Spotlight !

Professor Ken Chestek made a presentation to the Third Applied Legal Storytelling Conference at the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law, this past July. His presentation, entitled “The National Health Care Reform Litigation: A Case Study of Story in Action,” focused on the numerous lawsuits filed over the past year challenging the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. Some of these cases ended with findings by different trial courts that the law was unconstitutional, but others found the law to be constitutional, despite the fact that the facts and the law are identical in each case. Professor Chestek has published and given lectures on a wide variety of subjects, including persuasion, teaching methods, tax exemption policy, hospitals, and the uses of computers in law offices.

Jasmine Coombs joined the law school family on September 6th as a new staff member working at the front desk in our Law School Clinic. Jasmine comes to us from our neighboring IT (Informatics and Technology) department here on campus where she provided direct support and assistance to the Office of the Vice President for Information Technology and Chief Information Officer. Welcome!

Mary Deer, faculty assistant to Professors Katz, Klein, Nehf, and Roisman, was selected as one of the distinguished recipients of the 2010-2011 Gerald L. Bepko Spirit Award. The rating committee and the IUPUI Staff Council bestowed this honor upon Mary in recognition of her work and contributions on behalf of IUPUI and its community. She also attended the Chancellor’s Employee Recognition Convocation held on September 9th at the University Place Conference Center Auditorium. Congratulations!

Professor George Edwards held the official U.S. inaugural book presentation and signing for his new book, LL.M. Roadmap: An International Student’s Guide to U.S. Law School Programs, at Harvard Law School on Friday, September 16, 2011. The function was titled “Harvard Literati: Celebrating The Works of Alumni Authors.” On September 17, he also presented a paper as part of a panel for Harvard Law

School’s Celebration of Black Alumni (CBA) III Titled “A Human Rights Agenda for 21st Century Africa: The Role that Lawyers and Advocates have Played in Advancing Human Rights in Africa.”

Professor Edwards’ 624-page LL.M. Roadmap book also debuted in Paris, France, on September 26th. The event was for an “LL.M. Workshop” sponsored by the U.S. Department of State/Franco-American Commission, along with the Fulbright Commission. Professor Edwards introduced LL.M. Roadmap to the 75 French prospective LL.M. students, and presented on the topic of U.S. legal education for international and domestic J.D. and LL.M. students. (LL.M. Roadmap is available on Amazon.com and Barnesandnoble.com. All profits from the sale of the edition will go to the International Law Students Association (ILSA), which is the “parent” organization of the International Law Societies at law schools across the country.) For more information about the book, see the website: www.LLMRoadMap.com.

Professor Edwards and the Program in International Human Rights Law hosted five women’s rights advocates and journalists from Yemen on October 11th here at the law school. Professor Edwards discussed International Human Rights Law Education, Research, and Advocacy for Women’s Right to Freedom of Expression and Political Participation with the delegates. Visitors included: Ms. Thuraya Ameen Qasem Dammag, project manager, International Federation of Journalists in Yemeni Syndicates; Ms. Arwa Ibrahim Mohammed Al Shawafi, executive and financial assistant, Academic for Education Development; Ms. Altaf Shaher Ali Mohammed Al Yousefi, coordinator, Civic Democratic Initiative Support Foundation; Ms. Samia Abdulrahman Abdulaziz Saif, journalist, al Thori Newspaper; and Maha Naji Yahya Salah, author and Human rights activist. Interpreters Mr. Abdulhalim Rijaal and Ms. Hala Salman accompanied the visitors.

Professor Edwards has been nominated for the John W. Ryan Award for Distinguished Contributions to International Programs and Studies. This award is Indiana University’s highest honor for faculty who have made distinguished international contributions to Indiana University over many years. Up to two awards are given each year. Congratulations on your nomination!

Professor Priscilla Keith, Director of Research and Projects for the Hall Center for Law and Health, will present “Implementing the Affordable Care Act” at the Seton Hall Law Review’s 2011 Symposium, on Oct. 28 in Newark, NJ. The Seton Hall Law Review will publish the article in its fall 2012 issue. Professor Keith has also been appointed to serve as a member of the ABA’s Special Committee on Disaster Response and Preparedness.

Professor Fran Quigley has rejoined the Clinical Law Faculty after several years working as the Executive Director of the Indiana chapter of the CLU and spearheading the AMPATH and the Legal Aid Centre of Eldoret (LACE) programs in Kenya. He will be leading the school’s newest clinical course in the area of Health and Human Rights. Welcome back!

Bruce Schelkopf, adjunct professor teaching the Seminar on Law and Technology at our law school since 2005, was recognized and honored as the Best Global International Property Director for 2011 at the International General Counsel Awards hosted by the International Legal Alliance Summit in June. Professor Schelkopf, Chief Counsel and Executive Director of Intellectual Property at Cummins, Inc., was selected by a jury of over 80 general counsel from Fortune 500 companies for his ability to innovate in finding new solutions, maintaining the highest standards in the IP profession, and for his everyday practice, experience, management and strategy in IP. Congratulations!

Professor Carlton Waterhouse organized and participated in panels this past summer at the Southeastern Association of Law Schools (SEALS) in Hilton Head, South Carolina, and the 86th Annual Convention of the National Bar Association (NBA) in Baltimore, Maryland. At SEALS, he spoke about a recent Ninth Circuit Court decision suggesting that a CIA torture victim seek a reparations claim for abuses he experienced. At the NBA conference, he organized a panel addressing diversity in law school admissions. He also participated on an NBA panel examining the relationship between religion and reparations for human rights abuses and historic injustices. Professor Waterhouse serves as the Vice Chairperson of the Law Professor Division of the NBA.

Professor Waterhouse wrote a text that appeared in The Indianapolis Star on Sunday, August 21, entitled, “Beyond Guilt and Shame” regarding the debate surrounding a proposed sculpture of a freedman to be installed near the City-County Building in Indianapolis. (<http://www.indystar.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=2011108210304>.)

Professor Tom Wilson hosted the third annual Program in American Law for professors and students from the Faculdades Espirito Santenses Law School, located in Vitoria, Brazil, here at our law school September 4–10, 2011. (Professor Wilson founded the Program and is its director.) The Program consisted of classroom instruction each morning, based on a topic chosen each year by the FAESA professors, and field trips each afternoon. The topic chosen for 2011 was “The Common Law in Principle and Practice” and allowed the participants to gain a better understanding of the common law, comparing it to the civil law system of their home country. Field trips included visits to: the United States District Court; the Indiana Supreme Court; the Indiana Senate; the Office of the Indiana Attorney General; and Baker & Daniels law firm. The group also visited Wabash College where they met with students enrolled in a course on the Culture and Social Issues of Brazil, and spoke at an open forum for students and faculty. Professor Wilson will host another group from FAESA in September 2012.

Procedures for Scheduling
Law School Student Events/Meetings/
Table Requests

NOTE: If your student group is working with an “outside” group (i.e. bar association, not-for-profit, etc.), please check with the Office of External Affairs (Dean MacDougall), Rm. 355C, jonmac@iupui.edu. There may be special considerations depending on the nature of the event. Also, students are not able to schedule events in the Atrium or Courtroom. If you wish to reserve either of these areas for “student-only” events, please contact Regina Bennett (rdbennet@iupui.edu) in the Student Affairs Office, Rm. 119.

(Procedures cont.)

These procedures must be followed for any room/table requests by student organizations:

1. Go to the Events Calendar to place a tentative hold for your meeting/event/table no later than five (5) business days prior to your event, meeting, etc.
2. Check the calendar for any conflicting activities already scheduled. If your event conflicts with an already scheduled speaker or significant event, it can hurt attendance for both.
3. Select the calendar for the room you want to use and make sure it is available at the date and time you want.
4. Click the "Submit Event" button on the top right of the calendar and enter all the required information about your event. Be sure to select the room you want, if using a room in the law school for the event, and be sure to include your name and e-mail address.
5. Fill out and submit an Event/Meeting/Table Request Form no later than five (5) business days prior to the event/meeting. (Requests are not accepted until two (2) weeks prior to the start of a semester.

Please submit your Event/Meeting/Table Request Form the same day you place your event hold on the Events Calendar.

- * If your request has been approved, the event will appear on the Events Calendar within five (5) business days of your request.
- * If your request is denied, your event will be deleted from the Events Calendar and the person who submitted the request will receive an e-mail from the Student Affairs Office.

For additional information regarding budget, funding, catering, technology support, set-up, clean-up, etc., of your event or meeting, go to the law school website at: www.indylaw.indiana.edu and click on the "Current Students" tab and scan down to More... ; go to the left margin and click on Planning Student Events.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

Indiana University has created a web page to provide resources for you about emergency preparedness; information will be updated as needed. From the IU homepage, <http://www.indiana.edu/>, go to: About IUPUI, Site Index, Emergency Preparedness.

In the event of a building emergency for:

FIRE: Alarms will sound and evacuation is mandatory. Use closest stairway for exits. DO NOT USE ELEVATORS. Once outside, move to a safe place – if possible, to the parking lot west of the law school. Remain outside until the "all clear" is given.

NOTE: If you have a physical condition which prevents you from walking down the stairway, please go to one of the two designated "safe rooms" in the building: Rm. 267 or Rm. 387. Safe rooms will be checked by the fire department and persons located in these rooms will be carried to safety by fire department personnel in the event of an actual fire.

TORNADO WATCH: The "campus siren" will sound but evacuation is NOT required.

TORNADO WARNING: When a severe weather warning is activated by sirens, Jag Alert, campus emergency alert radios, or law school personnel, evacuation is necessary. Evacuate immediately to the designated areas of the building not exposed to windows or other potential hazards from shattered glass. (Classrooms are now designated "shelter in place" locations with the installation of special laminate on the windows preventing flying glass and other debris from entering the classrooms.)

Please see the designated areas posted at the north elevators on each floor of the law school building. DO NOT use the underground parking garage as a shelter location.

NOTE: Procedures are posted in all classrooms. For additional information regarding emergency preparedness, please go to: www.indylaw.indiana.edu/student. Under "Current Students," click on "More..." and then go to "Emergency Preparedness Links:"

SAFETY AT IUPUI

Please call the IUPUI Public Safety Dispatch Center at 274-7911 whenever you see anything that makes you feel uneasy or if you have discovered a crime. This number is a direct line and may be used to report ANY emergency, problem or concern.

Campus Police Escorts

Police escorts are available to students and Employees 24 hours a day. Please call 274-SAFE or 274-7233 between 6:00 p.m. and 2:00 a.m. if you are concerned about your personal safety.

Emergency phones are available in parking garages and in outside areas on campus. The outside campus phones are identified by yellow boxes and a distinctive blue light above them. Emergency phones are also found in the hallways of some campus buildings. These provide free access for people on campus to request any type of assistance. All emergency phones are identified by the word EMERGENCY and connect to the IUPUI Safety Dispatch Center (911).

IUPUI Shuttle Service – It's a FREE ride!

The IUPUI shuttle system operates Monday through Friday all year round, except during university recognized holidays. There are 3 shuttle routes: the Campus Route, North Campus Route, and HITS Express, complimentary of Parking & Transportation Services and available to anyone in the university community. IUPUI has improved the Jags Express shuttle routes to meet your campus transportation needs. Additional parking is available just minutes from campus along Indiana Avenue and on 16th St. at Bush Stadium. The Jags Express lots offer convenient parking and easy transportation to campus. Buses leave every 10 minutes between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m., Monday – Friday.

Campus route information and operational hours include:

|---------------------|---------------|
| (North Campus West) | 6 am–10 pm    |
| (North Campus East) | 6 am–10 pm    |
| (Campus West)       | 7 am– 9:40 pm |
| (Campus East)       | 7 am– 6 pm    |
| (HITS Route)        | 7 am–6 pm     |
| (Park Place)        | 7 am– 9:40 pm |

Please refer to the shuttle schedule on the IUPUI website under Parking Services Transportation for more detailed information:
