The Validations Committee announced the following Achievers are eligible for nomination for a NAJAC office. These delegates are for president:

Bob Beiting - Cincinnati, Ohio
Rich Tanner - Birmingham, Ala.
Brian O'Neill - Winnetka, Ill.
Ed Bedford - South Euclid, Ohio
Fred Weisman - Milwaukee, Wisc.
Patrick Oliver - Detroit Mich.

The outbreak of poliomyelitis in the Boston area has prevented sixteen delegates and councilors from the Eastern Massachusetts area from attending this year's NAJAC. The delegation decided to decline attending the conference when they were informed of the possibility of spreading the epidemic to achievers from all over the country who are attending the conference.

In a letter to the Conference Director, Oliver T. Bergstrom, President of Junior Achievement of Eastern Mass., said, "We appreciate the excellent spirit of co-operation as evidenced by the reaction of our delegates to the suggestion that they decline to attend. We wish you the best of success at the convention and assure you that we will be with you in spirit."

Delegates listed below have been appointed to the following important committees. Further instructions for these committeemen will be announced at the 8:00 Benton Hall business meeting. The delegates appointed to the By-laws committee are: O'neal, De Sana, Hershberger, Carney, Truitt, Brown, Daugherty, DuBrul, Cypher, Gershon, Kantzer, Nargulis, Benke, Clark, Smith, Moniz, Severn, Salimbene, Harpin, O'Keefe, Moran, Fella, Hanley, Taver, Taylor, Corcoran, Nesselrod, Engleman, Lorigan, McCutcheon, Machalski, Koch, Pearce, Johnson, Polesiak, Loring, Peterson, Geary.

Continued on page 2
HIGH STAKES IN OFFICERS' CONTEST

11 candidates are vying for a chance to make it into the final place in the contest (as stated in the Handbook), and they are all vying for the top position of President of the School. The elections committee, consisting of all the outstanding candidates, is set to hold an all-day unpaid trip to the School. The committee's organization, at the moment, is the most popular of the year. Over fifty Najacers entered the contest, and the final total is expected to be around 100. Over fifty Najacers entered the Speaker's Corps contest which is the most popular, and twenty per cent of all the delegates have entered contests. The judging for all the finals will be done by groups of businessmen from nearby J.A. cities.

The following people are running for the position of President in the officer of the year competition. Don Nielson, Sonja Vukov, Seattle, Washington; John Spisak, Ed Bedford, Saundra Yudellevitz, Robert Brown, Norm Vargo, Bill Mueller, Cleveland, Ohio; David Sanson, Los Angeles, California; Ernest Raherson, San Diego, California; Carole Jiroch, Chicago, Illinois; Norm Wood, Dallas, Texas; Jerry Margulis, H. G. Miller, St. Louis, Missouri; Steve Brown, Birmingham, Alabama; Lowell Howard, Houston, Texas; Charlie Mittepearl, Brooklyn, New York; Bill Lofty, Dayton, Ohio; Carl Burdette, Cincinnati, Ohio; Whiley Neil, New York, New York; H. A. Jellis, New York, New York; L. G. Calle, Long Island, New York; Neil Dolan, Donald Okey, Canton, Ohio; Bill Horagin, New York, New York; Jerry Seligman, Louisville, Kentucky.

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

"continued from page 1"

The resolutions committee will consist of: Cody, Poppen, Blaha, Racki, Sanson, Kelleher, L. Howard, Frewdenberg, Oliver, Stewart, Hobbie, Erickson, McSpadden, Blenkinspury, Nielsen, Allo, Seligman, Vlence, Westerland, Langley, Christensen, Tanner, Litchfenstein, Davis, Mcgriue, Nichols, Tward, Kish, Binkle, Fraher, Kling, Ringiner, Gaskin, Frizzelle, White, Foster, Ann Johnson, Schuster, Degnan, Piper, Kunze, Nordstrom, Rydzewski.

The elections committee is made up of: Finley, Calkin, O'Connell, Pascaul, Dencer, Stacy, Kaufman, Preden, Shaffer, Duffell, Mittepearl, Purukawa, Smith, Fletcher, Miller, Story, Pingel, Sine, Sigler, Ferner, Newstrom, Hollis, Klee, Games, Karness, Steube, Hechstetler, Mueller, Drone, Repeli, Reinhardt, Schuster, Thone, Thomas, Gordon, Wood, McCarthy, Harris, Mauser, Constantine, Reiter, Reader, Maydock, Boedeken.

-MISS NAJAC-

Tryouts for Miss Najac contests will be held at 2:30 Tuesday, in the recreation room in the basement of Richard Hall.
Anyone not as yet sending a note to their parents saying they arrived in good condition (minus a few hours sleep), please pick up the cards distributed for this purpose in the conference office.

Any information not included in the NAJAC hardbook or the booklet given NAJACers at registration may be obtained from the Information Office located in room 136 in Hamilton Hall.

Richard Hall's recreation room will be the scene of the Talent Night Auditions. Contact Dewitt Wolfe in room 222 at Hamilton Hall at the earliest possible time and certainly no later than Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. Appointments available.

Tomorrow afternoon during recreation period a softball league game will start. The first games will consist of teams from groups 1, 2, 3, and 4. Wednesday will find the teams from groups 5, 6, 7, and 8 playing. And on Thursday the finalists will compete for the title.

A resolution to outlaw the wearing of Bermuda shorts has been submitted by one ROM ROMAN, mid-western regional representative from Chicago. What do you think of this? Let us know!

A refreshment tent is located in back of the dorms for the purpose of the achievers enjoying. One may also find refreshments in the basement of Hamilton Hall.

To acquaint achievers in the dining halls, all delegates will sit with the same group at a table. After all know each other better, they may then circulate with others to meet new friends.

Johanna Witt, Eileen Galardi, and Gene Grase will be in charge of saying grace before noon and evening meals in the respective dining halls.

---

"Is there a doctor in the house?" These words were first spoken by Sandy Houhour of Youngstown, Ohio as she arrived at NAJAC this morning.

Sandy of room 237 broke open a boil, which is on the under side of her arm. A pillow fight on the train caused this little m'ishap. Sandy will be visiting the infirmary twice a day for hot applications. As for setting the record for the first NAJAC infirmary case, Sandy could only say, "Well I'm not dead yet."

HEY! Have you noticed those classy stars on several name tags? In case you are in the dark as to their meaning here is the lowdown:

Red stars—are our staff and counselors.
Blue stars—are our guests.
Silver stars—are honorary delegates.
Gold stars—are members of the National Industry Award winning companies.
Green stars—are officers.

---

NAJACER STAFF
Editor--Ray (Scoop) Eng
Distribution--Jim Clark
Production Manager--Jim Story
Asst. Prod. Managers--John Lucas and Ralph Duffell
News Editor--Tilly de Has
Features Editor--Jackie Koch
Contests Editor--Sam Setre
Comm. Editor--Paul Du Brul

NAJACER published daily.