"Don't Be A Pill---- GO TO JAMCO '57, Des Moines Iowa"

Does this sound familiar? A couple of girls, Lilah Stewart and Marcia Tschirgi, of Des Moines, Iowa stopped me on my way to the news room. They handed me a pill with a paper roll in it which read as follows: "Don't be a pill! Go to Jamco '57, Des Moines, Iowa." On the other side was a number, which is for a drawing to be held in Des Moines this week, by their Executive Director, Larry Milstead, and the results will be wired to Jim Sweeny here at NAJAC. First prize is an electric movie camera, and the second prize is $25 conference fee to JAIKO. JAMCO stands for the Junior Achievement Mid-Winter Conference. The winning will be published as soon as it is received, so HOLD ON TO THOSE PILLS.

Tomorrow afternoon, during the recreation period, the Milwaukee and Texas delegations will assemble in front of the coke tent and play COWBOY AND INDIANS!

* The NAJACER learned that Scotty Turnbull was the Scotchman that bought only one spur. He figured if one side of the horse went, the other was sure to follow.

CONFERENCE COMMANDMENTS

1. Stay out after curfew--It keeps the counselors from getting any sleep.
2. Don't speak to anyone you didn't come with--then if they're passing thru your city they won't have to stop and visit you.
3. THROW YOUR REFUGE ON THE GROUND--Then we won't have to come back to Indiana U.
4. Give another's number to the lunch line checker--you can help someone else lose weight.
5. Get on the wrong train or bus when leaving--you can see more of the country.

"DAN-DO-LITTLE"

Late to Bed,
Early to rise,
and you have lovely bloodshot eyes.
