MEETING OPENS CONFERENCE AT 8:00 PM IN AUDITORIUM

The largest conference ever held on the Ohio State campus will open tonight at 8:00 in the auditorium with 1050 achievers, staff and visitors attending. Included on the program will be the introduction of head staff personnel and honorary delegates. Honorary delegates are James Stivers, Boy Scouts; James Griesheimer and Bonnie Renner, 4-H; Karl Knecht, Key Club; Steve Steffel, Distributive Education Clubs of America and Luis Jameney, Junior Achievement of Mexico City.

Stivers, an Eagle ranked Scout, is from Fort Thomas, Ky. and has been in Scouting for 10 years. Griesheimer is an Ohio State U. sophomore and Miss Renner a junior also at Ohio State. Knecht is a high school senior from Tyrone, Penn. and Steffel a DE student from Defiance, Ohio.

Jameney was president and sales manager of his company, "Manufacturas Maderex", in Mexico. His J.A. company made piggy banks.

Luis Morales, Executive Secretary in Mexico City will attend with Jameney to represent his country's program.

The Assistant Scientific Attaché of the Royal Netherlands Embassy, Mr. Ederveen, will attend to observe the conference activities.

Others attending are J.A. board members, businessmen and Executive Directors.

Curfew is for 11:30 and lights out at 12:00 for all delegates.
