PRESIDENT HARDENBROOK ADDRESSES DELEGATES

At Monday morning's General Meeting, Mr. Donald Hardenbrook, National President of Junior Achievement, Inc., spoke to the delegates about an organization unequaled in caliber by any other organization in this country—Junior Achievement. President Hardenbrook stated that throughout history, America has been moving along on great tides of thought. Now a perilous undercurrent of thought is moving America in a direction that could lead to our economic downfall. To find out about the events in today's world, one has to read more than the headlines to understand fully what is happening. One trend of thought which is little understood by the average citizen is that concerning the transfer of free private capitalistic enterprise to the control of the government. Can free enterprise survive under this type of situation? Can it satisfy the people and the rising revenue of the government? A change of this sort would not happen in an instant. It would happen over many, many years, through laws voted on and passed by the public and the elected officials. It would happen, perhaps, even without the awareness of the general public.

The future of this, or any nation, is no better than the character of its young people. Let us look for a moment at this character...Of the high school students questioned in a recent poll, 62% said that a worker should NOT produce all he can; 42% believed that large companies should be broken down into smaller companies; 63% supported government ownership of banks, railroads, and steel companies; 41% did not believe in freedom of the press; and 43% believed that price control did not affect man's freedom. These students were intelligent, but they did not have the opportunity to learn about free enterprise because sound economics and the values of (continued on p.2, col.1)

HAVE MERCY--Sports Office Opens...

The Sports Office is located in Room 77 in the North wing of McNutt Dorm. It will be open from 12:30-1:30 PM and again from 4:00-5:45 PM daily through Thursday. Equipment is available for softball, football, and volleyball.

Areas, groups or individuals who are interested in forming teams should contact the JA-IU-AD or the Asst JA-IU-AD during the above hours.

All persons interested in playing in the annual Counselor-Delegate All-Star Contest report to the JA-IU-AD or his assistant in the Sports Office. (Would you believe a Girls vs. Boys All-Star Game?)

EXTRA

Swimming is available from 1:30 PM to 5:15 PM daily. The cost is 25¢. All that will be needed to get into the pool is your name card.

ROBERT KENNEDY ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Robert Kennedy of JACKSON, MICHIGAN is attending this year's Conference. Also with us is LIKE SWEENEY of Lynn, Massachusetts. Famous TV personality ALVAN MORALES also joins us.

Belated birthday greetings go out to GREGORY LEONARD of Eastern, Massachusetts who celebrated his birthday on Sunday, and to LORI BOLZ of Cleveland who had a birthday on Monday.

Today, CAROL JOHNSON of Lima, Ohio is celebrating her birthday.

BEST WISHES TO THESE PEOPLE FROM ALL WHO ARE ATTENDING THE CONFERENCE.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? Well,...letters! And JAN GALL of Moundsville, W. Virginia and JOE FREY of Findlay, Ohio are, so far, the achievers with the shortest names. LINDA SCHWENEBERATEN of Johnston, Pa. and FRANCES FITZPATRICK of Roanoke, Virginia have the longest names.
Free Enterprise are not being taught in High Schools today.

No other system of education can provide today's young people with the knowledge of the Free Enterprise system as well or as fully as Junior Achievement. It is up to YOU—today's young people, today's Junior Achievers—to dedicate yourself to the preservation of the existing system of Free Enterprise. Partners in Progress..... Business in Youth... carry it on throughout your lives. Build one of the greatest constructive forces in our time.

LETTERS HOME......

The following excerpts were taken from some of the postcards mailed home upon arrival to the Conference:

"Dear Roter Rooter...Til then, Pat the Rat." "I hope you like form letters... George" "Dear family... Hang tight." "Lots of girls, Lots of fun...Rod." "How corny you can get, but its required...Ruth" "Send $10 please, Mom"

$16.19 was made at the Orientation Meeting by selling pencils at 10¢ each.

REPORTS ANALYSIS...

One of the best ways to keep a good record of your Conference participation is to have copies of all Group and Workshop minutes. The newly developed Reports Analysis has been designed to supply you with the best published minutes ever.

All moderators and secretaries can greatly assist the Reports Analysis Department by writing complete and accurate minutes and submitting them to the Reports Department in the basement of the Briscoe main dorm building by the proper time. (Workshops: 1:15 PM; Groups: 5:30 PM.) Any questions concerning minutes will be answered if you call 7-3567.

????????DO YOU KNOW HOW MUCH COKE HAS?????? BEEN CONSUMED SINCE SUNDAY???
WATCH THIS SPACE FOR TALLIES.

TODAY'S SCHEDULE

7:00-8:15—Breakfast.
9:00—General Meeting—Auditorium.
   Sit by Group No.
10:00—Workshops.
12:00-1:15—Luncheon.
2:00—Group Discussions; Contests.
4:00—Recreation.
5:15-6:30—Dinner.
6:00—General Meeting—Auditorium.
   Sit by Delegation.
11:30—Curfew.
12:00—Lights out.

CAFETERIA CONTINUES TO SHINE...

LUNCH TODAY: Blended juices; good old-fashioned Italian spaghetti with meat sauce and Parmesan cheese; relish plate with snappy celery sticks, pickles, olives, and green onion; mouth-watering watermelon or cantaloupe; strong garlic bread; drink.

DINNER TODAY: succulent stuffed pork chops; melt-in-your-mouth buttered carrot strips; tantalizing hot spiced apples; home-made cole slaw; George Washington's cherry pie; beverage.

BREAKFAST TOMORROW: healthful orange juice; Southern-grilled eggs (just the way Mother used to fix 'em); cream of wheat or cold cereal; fresh toast and jelly; beverage.

"THE NEAREST EXIT" OPENS...

"The Nearest Exit," NAJAC's answer to the Purple Onion, opened its short stay last night. Achievers and counselors alike can enjoy a relaxing moment and experience a "happening" while sipping or guzzling their coffee or coke in our coffeehouse. Located in the basement of the main building of McNutt dorm, "The Nearest Exit" is the result of the combined efforts of the Terre Haute delegation and the Coffee Information Service. Located in the basement of the main building of McNutt dorm, "The Nearest Exit" is the result of the combined efforts of the Terre Haute delegation and the Coffee Information Service. Terre Haute is the home of "The Loft", a teen-age nite-club. Due to the success of and response to the "nite-club" it was thought that NAJAC should have a similar attraction. The director of the Coffee Information Service, Mrs. Harriet Pitt, is working with those involved with the Coffeehouse. The Service is supplying us with the coffee.
FUN AND GAMES!!! TRY YOUR LUCK WITH THIS CROSSWORD PUZZLE (BOXES ARE FOUND ON P. 4)

DOWN

1. . . winners of these will be announced on Friday.
2. . . takes place on Thursday.
3. . . "It's in the . . . . . . . ."
4. . . this is the 24th National.
5. . . National Junior Achievers Conference (abbreviation)
6. . . this sells for $1.00 each.
10. . . this happens to all JA companies at the end of their fiscal year.
13. . . a man from the "big business" world who gives up his time each week so thatyou can have a JA company.
18. . . something in your favor.
19. . . cards worn by the staff.
21. . . what you finally end up with.
23. . . Indiana __________, scene of NAJAC.
25. . . summary of a company's operations during the year.
27. . . sum of money used to get things started.
28. . . Knights of Columbus.
32. . . NAJAC VP

ACROSS

7. . . Conference secretary.
9. . . elected to manage every company.
8. . . entertainment for Wednesday night.
12. . . the big 'B' dorm.
14. . . NAJAC President.
15. . . free refreshment provided.
16. . . can be raw, but is necessary to make anything.
17. . . gala party planned for Thursday.
20. . . returned to investors in the spring.
22. . . finished item, sold for a profit!
24. . . home office of JA.
26. . . investors insurance in a company.
29. . . there are 1,859 of them here.
30. . . our founder.
31. . . Association secretary.
32. . . opposite of false.
33. . . Mc
34. . . what is left after expenses have been paid.
35. . . opposite of gain.
36. . . government's portion of income and profit.

COMPETITION STIFFENS IN ELECTIONS...

Election procedures are moving right along as the competition gets tighter. The survivors of the Preliminary Validations section have been posted and they will now move into the Final Validations section. These candidates will be given another test this morning and will be interviewed in depth this afternoon.

The list of those who pass the Final Validations, which will constitute the final slate of candidates, will be posted in the lobby of the auditorium before tonight's General Meeting. These candidates will then give their campaign speeches at the General Meeting to kick off the campaigning which will last through Wednesday night.

Rules for campaigning will be found in the book and will be strictly enforced by the Elections Committee. Any violations will be posted on the Violations Board located next to the Official Elections Board. The violations are posted to serve as an informational guide for the voters. Should there be any questions concerning these violations, please report to the Elections Office in McNutt South.

____________________________

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY! . . . . .

BETH ROYE of Houston is celebrating her birthday today, too.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, BETH!

____________________________

SOUND OF MUSIC...

Mr. Dennis Houlihan of Fresno, California, is our Conference organist. The organ was donated by the Wurlitzer Co., for the use of the Conference. Before each meeting, he is taking requests. Mr. Houlihan, who has studied organ for seven years, brought 60 pounds of music with him.

Mr. Houlihan will be the organist at all of the General Meetings.