Equal Opportunity at IUPUI

The work of the IUPUI Office of Equal Opportunity is guided by federal and state statutes for equal employment opportunity, non-discrimination, and affirmative action. Federal and state rules relative to Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action protect the rights of all individuals to take and hold a job, engage in all activities of the University, and to advance free from discrimination on the basis of personal characteristics such as race, color, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, or veteran status.

Mission Statement

Kim D. Kirkland, Director

The IUPUI Office of Equal Opportunity is committed to promoting a working and learning environment free of discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, or veteran status. To this end, the Office is responsible for ensuring the University's compliance with all applicable federal and state nondiscrimination requirements and serves as the institution's official liaison with governmental civil rights enforcement agencies. The EO director reports to the Chancellor (Indianapolis) and is responsible for the development and execution of the University's Affirmative Action Program. In addition, the office provides leadership and support toward developing a comprehensive and institution-wide approach to achieving and sustaining a diverse and pluralistic community of students, faculty and staff.

IUPUI Office of Equal Opportunity Hotline: 1-866-245-1310

The OEO-Hotline is established to provide the University community with additional informal and alternative means to anonymously communicate their concerns regarding issues of equity, discrimination and/or harassment.

Revised Ethnicity/Race and Military Status for IU Students and Employees

How To Report Graffiti

Graffiti is more than vandalism. In cases where the graffiti is offensive, belittling and/or threatening it is a form of harassment which makes it not only unacceptable but unlawful. Please click here to report all graffiti.
