Mission

Vision:

The Vision of the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences is to be recognized nationally and globally as a leader in graduate health and rehabilitation sciences, and a provider of excellent health care professionals for the state of Indiana and beyond.

Mission:

In fulfilling its vision, the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences seeks to develop and maintain a scholarly faculty who will provide excellence in: 1) the teaching/learning process for programs in fields related to the health professions, 2) the advancement of knowledge through research, scholarship and creative activity, and 3) the development of a lifelong commitment to civic engagement locally, nationally, and globally. Each of these core activities is characterized by: 1) collaboration within and across disciplines, the university, and the community, 2) a commitment to diversity, and 3) the pursuit of best practices.

The Goals and Objectives come from the faculty approved School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences' strategic plan through 2012/13. The actions taken and activities planned emerged from school-wide and department-specific planning.

Goals and Objectives

- Provide excellent educational opportunities in selected health and rehabilitation sciences for Indiana, nationally, and internationally
- Attract, support, and retain a well-prepared, diverse student population

Broaden the donor base of all potential categories - new donors, new corporations, foundations, alumni, and new contributors

Campus Planning Theme:
Secondary Goals:
Sub Unit:
Time Frame: Beginning 2008

Actions taken for 2010-2011:
1. Avenues of potential new donors were explored and continued to be examined - non-traditional donations were also sought (i.e. donation of equipment for our new PA program).

2. The School ran a very successful employee IMPACT campaign in the spring of 2010.

Evidence of Progress for 2010-2011:

During FY 2010, the School had 320 donors including 274 alumni, 43 friends, and 3 corporations. Of those 320 donors, 28 were new donors to the School. Although the School’s number of donors decreased in every category, the policies and practices put in place in FY 2010 will ensure the School’s ability to better cultivate and steward donors in the future. The public launch of the IMPACT campaign should also help to increase the School’s donor base.

Activities planned for 2011-2012:

1. Hire a Director of Development
2. Continue to engage in active gift solicitation

☑ Secure funds to support student research, student organizations, fellowships and assistantships, and faculty and staff development

1. What changes are you seeing in the characteristics of incoming and returning students, and how are you preparing these students to meet the changing needs of the future workforce?

The School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences (SHRS) offers five graduate/professional degrees (i.e., Doctor of Physical Therapy, Master of Science in Occupational Therapy, Master of Science in Nutrition and Dietetics, Master of Science in Health Sciences, and Ph.D in Health and Rehabilitation Sciences), one undergraduate degree (BS in Health Sciences), and three undergraduate certificates (i.e., Gerontology, Rehabilitation and Disability Studies, and Global Health and Rehabilitation Studies). The school is in the process of starting a graduate degree program in physician assistant studies.

The characteristics of the incoming and returning graduate students have not changed over the years. In terms of undergraduate academic preparation and maturity, we continue to attract outstanding graduate students. For example, over the last three years incoming students admitted to the Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, and Nutrition and Dietetic programs had an average grade point of 3.71, 3.57, and 3.40, respectively. Attrition rate is extremely low and over 90% of graduates pass their certification and licensure examinations on first attempt and secure employment in their respective fields. One change we have noticed is the number of international students enrolled in the Ph.D in Health and Rehabilitation Sciences. Of the 21 students enrolled in the Ph.D program, 4 are Saudi nationals and 1 is from India.

The undergraduate program is a relatively new degree program offered by the SHRS. The program, established in fall 2009, admitted the first class of 17 students in fall 2010, and has 148 currently enrolled students. Our review of the academic transcripts of students suggests that they are not making timely decisions to identify their major or transfer their earned academic credits to an appropriate degree program. We have also observed that in spite of the availability of online academic advising and their ease with the use of technology, undergraduate students still prefer face-to-face academic advising. The SHRS has responded to this need by strengthening our working relationship with the University College and hiring a full-time academic counselor. While the educational goal of a significant number of our undergraduate students is to seek admission to one of the graduate/professional degree programs in the SHRS, they are encouraged to complete one of the certificate programs in order to meet the changing needs of the health care workforce and to broaden their options.

2. What are your plans for any surplus amounts in your fund balance?

The fund balance will be used to ensure the successful implementation of the graduate program in physician assistant studies, a program approved by the IU Board of Trustees and the Indiana Commission on Higher Education in 2011. The provisional accreditation visit by the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA) will occur on May 10-11, 2012 and the anticipated start date of the first class of students is summer 2013.

ARC-PA expects all new programs to make the following investments prior to the provisional accreditation site visit to demonstrate their readiness to enroll and graduate competent practitioners: (a) employ a full-time program director, (b) employ a Medical Director, (c) hire a minimum of three full-time faculty members, (d) secure adequate classroom and laboratory spaces, (e) secure faculty offices, and (f) secure instructional equipment and materials. Due to space constraints on campus, the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences has rented an 8,800 square foot space located at 2039 N. Capital Street. The school has encumbered funds to renovate and reconfigure the space to create faculty offices, conference room, classrooms, student lounge, computer laboratory, clinical observation laboratories, and physical examination rooms. The school has allocated to purchase classroom chairs, install telecommunication systems to support student learning, and secure audiovisual equipment to be installed in each of the classrooms, physical examination rooms, and conference/observation room.

3. What are your short-term and long-term plans for ensuring adequate facilities to meet your mission? To what extent are online and/or hybrid courses a useful strategy in addressing any anticipated space constraints?

Plans for ensuring adequate facilities to meet the mission of the school include renting space on and off-campus, renovating and upgrading existing facilities, and maximizing the use of available space. One of our strategic goals is to increase the number of online courses available to undergraduate students. The number of online courses offered by the school increased from 9 in 2008/2009 to 29 in 2010/12, resulting in an increase of 222%. In addition to serving as a useful strategy to deal with classroom space constraints, we believe that the availability of online courses will have a positive impact on degree progression and timely completion of degree requirements.

4. What marketing strategies/materials are you planning to develop/disseminate during the coming year?

- a. Who is the intended audience for each?
- b. What do you hope to accomplish with this strategy with this audience?
- c. How much are you planning to spend for each strategy?
- d. How will you tell if your expenditure was worth your investment? [Provide return on investment (ROI) data for past expenditures, if available, and plan to track ROI in the future.]
For the coming year, more effort will be devoted to accomplish the following objectives:
- Market the MS in Health Sciences
- Develop and distribute promotional materials for the Master of Physician Assistant program
- Implement social networking strategies for the BS in Health Sciences program
- Market the BS in Health Science program to students enrolled in health science programs at Ivy Tech
- Continue to update website
- Continue to produce and distribute the Dean’s Update to faculty, students, staff, and alumni
- Continue to produce and distribute the school’s magazine (i.e., IMPACT Magazine) to alumni and donors

a. Who is the intended audience for each?

The intended audience for the marketing of the BS in Health Science program will include:
- High school students
- Current IUPUI UCOL students
- Students who are denied admission into the BS in Nursing
- Students enrolled in the IUPUI Dental Hygiene and EMT programs
- Students enrolled in health science programs at Ivy Tech

For the MS in Health Sciences program, the audience will be working heath care professionals.

Alumni and donors are the intended audience for the Dean’s update and magazine.

b. What do you hope to accomplish with this strategy with this audience?

What we hope to accomplish with our marketing strategies is to increase the visibility of the degree programs offered by the school with specific focus on the BS in Health Sciences, Undergraduate Certificate programs, and the MS in Health Sciences. Our ultimate goal is to increase total student enrollment in both the BS degree and MS in Health Science programs. The Dean’s Update and the IMPACT Magazine represent our efforts to increase alumni involvement and cultivation of donors.

c. How much are you planning to spend for each strategy?

We anticipate spending approximately $10,000.00 on marketing and advertising next year. One student employee will be hired to monitor social networking initiatives. Our plan is to place less emphasis on print material and invest more funds to update and maintain our website. A part-time webmaster will be paid on an hourly basis to maintain the school’s website. The Director of the BS in Health Sciences program and the Academic Counselor will coordinate recruitment visits to Ivy Tech and IUPUI UCOL. The production and printing of the school’s magazine will be coordinated with the Office of Public Affairs and Government Relations and IU Foundation.

d. How will you tell if your expenditure was worth your investment? [Provide return on investment (ROI) data for past expenditures, if available, and plan to track ROI in the future.]

Effectiveness and impact of our marketing strategies will be monitored by:
(a) Conducting periodic evaluation of student involvement in social networking activities
(b) Conducting yearly survey of undergraduate students (free via survey-monkey) to find out how they learned about us
(c) Tracking the number of transfer students from Ivy Tech Health programs outlined in our Articulation Agreement.
