Annual Security Report

In compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) and the safety-related requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act, the Indiana University Police Department (IUPD) on each IU campus produces an Annual Security Report. Each report includes policy statements addressing the university's procedures, practices, and programs concerning safety and security, for example, policies for responding to emergency situations and sexual offenses. Each report also includes three years worth of statistics for particular types of crimes that were reported to have occurred: on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by the university; and on public property on or immediately adjacent to the campus.

These reports are available online at <http://protect.iu.edu/police/cleryreports>. You may also request a paper copy from your campus IUPD contact at:

Policy Statements

This section of the Annual Security Report discloses the procedures, practices, and programs IU has implemented to keep its students and employees safe and its facilities secure.

Reporting Crimes and Other Emergencies

Criminal and suspicious actions and emergencies should be reported for the purpose of safety, security and prevention, as well as to allow the University to, when appropriate, make timely warning reports or emergency notifications to the community and to ensure inclusion in the annual crime statistics report when required.

Reporting to IUPD

Community members, including students, faculty, staff, and guests, are encouraged to report, accurately and promptly, all criminal or suspicious actions and any potential emergencies or dangerous situations occurring on campus. For emergencies, dial 9-1-1; if you are using a cell phone, immediately state your location. Incidents may also be reported in any of the following ways:

- By telephone to IUPD-Indianapolis at phone number 911
- By telephone to IUPD-Indianapolis 317-274-7911
- By campus telephone to IUPD-Indianapolis at 317-274-2018
- In person to IUPD-Indianapolis 1232 W. Michigan Street Ball Annex
- Via the blue light telephones located on campus property
- To police officer, security officer, or cadet officer when encountered

Response to Report

In response to reports, and depending on the nature of the particular report, the dispatcher may either send an officer to the caller's location or ask the caller to come to the IUPD office to file an incident report. Depending on the circumstances, an incident report may be forwarded to other university offices for potential action, as required or otherwise necessitated by law or policy, including:

- Chancellor
- Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration
- Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs
- Dean of Students
- Housing
- Environmental Health and Safety
- University Counsel
- Campus Facility Services
- Office of Insurance, Loss Control and Claims
- Human Resources

Voluntary, Confidential Reporting

If you are a victim of or witness to a crime, but you do not want to pursue action within the university system or the criminal justice system, you may still choose to make a report and request that it remain confidential. The purpose of such a report is to comply with your wish to keep your identity confidential, while also providing information to help ensure the future safety of yourself and others. An IUPD officer can file a confidential report detailing the incident without revealing your identity, to the extent allowed by law. Using the information provided in the confidential police report, the university can keep an accurate record of: the number of incidents involving students, employees, and visitors; determine whether there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or assailant; and alert the university community to potential dangers. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the university.

Pastoral and Professional Counselors

Any campus 'pastoral counselors' and campus 'professional counselors,' when acting in those roles, are not considered to be a campus security authority (CSA) and therefore are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. However, pastoral or professional counselors, if and when they deem appropriate, may inform persons being counseled of our procedures to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

Security of and Access to Campus Facilities

IU campuses are open to the public. During business hours, most buildings are open to students, parents, employees, contractors, guests, and invitees; however, there may be restricted areas that are not accessible without permission from a university representative. On evenings and weekends, certain buildings are open for scheduled classes, events, or meetings. Some buildings may stay open 24 hours, or have hours that vary at different times of the year. Buildings will be closed according to schedules developed by the department responsible for the building. When a building is closed, only faculty, staff, and students with specific authorization are permitted inside. Emergencies may necessitate changes to any posted schedules.

Other campus security and access controls include:

Building hours are determined by the schools and departments that occupy the building along with the building's building coordinator. When a building is closed, only faculty, staff, and students with specific needs are allowed inside.

Campus Residence Access

Special consideration for campus residence access include:

- Campus residence halls and Apartments all have 24/7 electronic access control on the private areas of the buildings. Access is controlled to these areas by Housing.

Security Considerations for the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

IUPD officers patrol campus buildings and grounds regularly. If officers notice any unsafe conditions, such as poor lighting, they report them to the appropriate administrators for correction.

Members of the campus community are encouraged to report safety issues to the IUPD or one of the following:

- IUPUI Police 317-274-7911
- Parking Services 317-278-1900
- Campus Facility Services 317-278-1900

A very strong commitment to campus security and safety is maintained through regular surveys of the following:

- Police and facilities employees constantly look for and report problems with lighting, locks, security equipment and for other public safety hazards as they perform their daily duties.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Timely Warnings about Crimes

All of us want to be promptly alerted to potentially dangerous criminal situations near our homes or workplaces, so that we have both the time and the information necessary to take appropriate precautions. When the campus IUPD Chief or his/her designee has determined that a Clery Act crime is occurring on campus and that the incident may pose a serious or continuing threat to members of the campus community, the campus IUPD Chief or his or her designee is responsible for issuing a timely warning to notify members of the community of the situation.

Timely warnings are usually distributed for crimes classified as arson, criminal homicide, robbery, aggravated assault, sexual assault, and other sexual offenses. In deciding whether or not to issue a warning, the campus IUPD Chief examines the facts of each incident on a case-by-case basis, and considers when and where the incident occurred, when the incident was reported, and any other information available to the IUPD. For example, if an assault occurs between two students who have a disagreement, there may be no ongoing threat to other university community members; therefore, a timely warning would not be distributed. Timely warnings may be distributed for other crimes as deemed necessary by the campus IUPD Chief or his or her designee.

Warnings are generally written by the campus IUPD Chief or his or her designee, and are issued by the IUPD. IU-Notify is used to send timely warnings and updates to members of the university community by email, text message, and/or telephone. On a case-by-case basis, other means of distribution may be used, including:

Websites:

- www.police.iupui.edu
- www.protect.iu.edu

More information on what IU-Notify is and how it works can be found at <http://kb.iu.edu/data/avvo.html>. Instructions for how to update your contact information are found at <http://kb.iu.edu/data/avvp.html>.

Emergency Notifications

When IU receives a report of a potential emergency or other dangerous situation, Public Safety and campus officials respond and assess each individual incident. An emergency notification is initiated by an event that is currently occurring on or imminently threatening the campus. Emergency notification procedures are initiated for any significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on the campus. University officials authorized to send messages via the emergency notification process will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, collaborate to determine the content of the message. These officials will communicate information regarding the threat to the campus community or to the appropriate segment of the community if the threat is limited to a particular building or segment of the population. IU may not immediately issue a notification for a confirmed emergency or dangerous situation if doing so, in the professional judgment of first responders and Public Safety officials, will compromise efforts to assist a victim, to contain the emergency, to respond to the emergency, or to otherwise mitigate the emergency.

IU's use of emergency response and notification procedures is not necessarily limited to crimes. An incident such as a serious gas leak, tornado, hazardous materials spill, or winter storm, for instance, could also warrant the use of this protocol.

University officials authorized to send messages via the emergency notification process include the following staff: Public Safety officials (a term that includes Police, Emergency Management and Continuity, and Environmental Health and Safety personnel) and Communications/Marketing personnel. These officials will use their discretion to determine the content of the message, specific method(s) of notification, recipients of the notification, and sending authority. Usually, such notification will be made using the IU-Notify emergency notification system. Notification may be accomplished using a variety of messaging methods that include text messages, telephone calls, email, television cable override, sirens, digital signage, web site banners, and/or public address systems. If there is a need to disseminate information outside of the campus community, it is posted to the IU Protect web site at <https://protect.iu.edu>, distributed to local news agencies, and posted to WebEOC (which notifies surrounding public safety jurisdictions and the Indiana Department of Homeland Security)

Response and Evacuation Procedures and Tests

Response and evacuation procedures are documented in campus "Emergency Procedures and Emergency Action Plans." Evacuation route maps are posted in hallways throughout all campus buildings.

Announced and unannounced drills are scheduled and executed annually to test evacuation procedures.

An announced test of the IU-Notify emergency notification system is conducted at least once per calendar year. This test also publicizes the protect.iu.edu website, which contains information about emergency procedures.

Each test, drill, and exercise is designed to assess and evaluate plans and capabilities and is documented in writing. The documentation includes a description of the test/drill/exercise, the date held, the time started and ended, whether the test/drill/exercise was announced or unannounced, and recommendations or improvements, if applicable.

Campus tests, drills, and exercises performed in the calendar year for this report include:

- March 21 – Operation Stormy Weather – Alert and Warning Drills – Morning and Evening - Testing IU-Notify and safe shelter procedures
- October 10, 2012 – HAZMAT Tabletop Exercise – Discussion-based exercise with the campus Emergency Preparedness Committee (EPC) to evaluate future responses to hazardous material releases on campus

Missing Student Notification

IU's policy is to thoroughly investigate all reports of missing persons, and to ensure that all missing person notifications are made promptly and in accordance with applicable state and federal law.

If a student who resides in on-campus housing is believed to be missing, this must be reported immediately to the IUPD. The IUPD will obtain a report and initiate an investigation. If the IUPD determines that a student is missing and has been missing for more than 24 hours, the IUPD will notify local law enforcement and inform the student's designated contact person(s) no more than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. These procedures may be implemented in less than 24 hours if circumstances warrant.

In addition to identifying an emergency contact, any student who resides in an on-campus housing facility may identify the same or different person to be contacted should the student be determined to be missing. If a student has identified such a person, the IUPD will notify that person no more than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. If the missing student is under the age of 18 and is not an emancipated person, the IUPD will notify the student's parent or legal guardian in addition to the student's designated contact. This contact information will be registered confidentially, will be accessible only to authorized campus officials, and will not be disclosed outside of a need to further a missing student investigation. A student can register their missing student contact information by:

To register emergency contacts or to update contacts

- Visit <http://studentaffairs.iupui.edu/housing/>
- Log into the housing service center under Resident Information tab
- Click on "Manage My Contacts."
- Select add a "missing persons contact."

Information about the missing person will be entered into National Crime Information Center (NCIC) within two hours of being received by police. This information will also be sent to any police department near the location where the missing student was last seen, or any law enforcement agency to which the reporting party requests the information be sent, provided the officer considers the request to be reasonable.

Crime Prevention and Security Awareness

The IUPD and many other IU departments use a variety of media to provide information about crime prevention, to publicize campus security procedures and practices, and to encourage community members to be responsible for their own security and for the security of others.

Campus security and fire safety procedures are discussed during new student orientation. Representatives, or a designee, from the IUPD, the Office of Environmental Health and Safety (EH&S), and the Office of Emergency Management and Continuity (EMAC) participate in forums, engage in town hall meetings, and are available by request to address student and employee questions, and to explain university security, public safety, and fire safety measures and procedures. Members of the IUPD conduct presentations about crime prevention and general security and safety awareness when requested by various community groups, including students and employees of the university. Information typically provided includes: crime prevention tips; statistics on crime at IU; fire safety information; information about campus security procedures and practices; and encouragement to all community members to be responsible for their own security and for the security of others.

Campus security awareness and crime prevention programs include:

- Dealing with Difficult People 5 times January 20, 2012 Dental School Staff, Campus Center Staff
- Active Shooter 2 times February 24, 2012 Campus Center Staff
- Panic Button Training 3 times 2/24/12, 8/6/12 Campus Center Staff, Financial Aid Staff
- Campus Safety 2 times 8/10/12, 8/15/12 IT Staff, Herron Faculty and Staff
- Office Safety 1 time 8/15/12 Herron Faculty and Staff
- Superbowl Safety 1 time 1/20/12 Student Government
- Safety doesn't happen by Accident 1 time 8/17/12 International Students

To schedule a security awareness or crime prevention presentation, contact the IUPD office on your campus at:

Campus Law Enforcement/Security

Law Enforcement Authority

The IUPD employs sworn police officers, certified by the State of Indiana, and meet state-mandated training requirements. These officers have full police powers as granted by the State of Indiana (IC 21-39-4), and have access to national and state law enforcement computer networks. IUPD officers have primary jurisdiction on any real property owned or occupied by the university, including the streets passing through and adjacent to such property. In addition, these officers have the power to assist university officials in the enforcement of IU's rules and regulations.

Working Relationship with State and Local Enforcement Agencies

By resolution of the Indiana University Board of Trustees, university police are authorized to exercise police powers beyond the primary jurisdiction in certain circumstances. The IUPD maintains a cooperative working relationship with municipal and county law enforcement agencies in the geographic areas in which campuses are located, as well as with Indiana State Police and Federal agencies. When investigating alleged criminal offenses, the IUPD cooperates with the appropriate law enforcement agencies and other criminal justice authorities.

These cooperative working relationships include:

IU Police Indianapolis works closely with all local law enforcement agencies including:

- Indianapolis Metropolitan Police
- Indiana State Capitol Police
- Indiana State Police
- Veterans Administration Police
- Marion County Sheriff's Office

No MOUs exist with these agencies.

IUPD officers normally investigate all criminal offenses that occur in the IUPD's primary jurisdiction, and work with the staff of cooperating agencies when incidents arise that require joint investigative efforts, resources, crime-related reports, and exchanges of information. The officers of IUPD and cooperating agencies communicate regularly at the scene of incidents that occur in and around the campus. Meetings may be held between the IUPD and cooperating law enforcement agencies for purposes of sharing information, on both a formal and informal basis. Local and state police agencies provide back-up assistance for any emergency that might require extensive police services. Any law enforcement officer may come onto campus at any time; just as IUPD officers have powers to arrest, city and state police can arrest students and visitors on campus for violations of law within their agencies' jurisdictions. In addition, the university has the responsibility of advising the appropriate authorities of violations of civil or criminal law committed by anyone on campus, either when a request for specific information is made or when there is a danger to life or property.

Crimes Involving Student Organizations at Off-Campus Locations

If IU students are implicated in criminal activity occurring off-campus, including off-campus locations of student organizations officially recognized by IU (with or without housing facilities), the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction may notify the IUPD; however, there is no official policy requiring such notification. Students in these cases may be subject both to arrest by law enforcement officers with jurisdiction over the area where the criminal activity occurs, and subject to the university's judicial proceedings through:

- IUPUI does not have any officially recognized student organizations that have Housing facilities off campus.

Disclosure of University Disciplinary Proceedings Results

Upon receipt of a written request from the alleged victim of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense, the University will disclose to them the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the university against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of this request.

Alcohol and Drugs

The possession, use, sale, manufacturing or distribution of any controlled substance, including alcohol, on the IU campus is governed by the: campus Alcohol and Drug-Free Policy; the IU Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct, and the laws of the State of Indiana. The Indiana Alcoholic Beverage Commission (ABC) controls state laws regarding the possession, use, sale, consumption, or furnishing of alcohol. However, the enforcement of alcohol laws on campus is primarily the responsibility of the IUPD. IU has been designated "drug free," and the consumption of alcohol on campus is only permitted under certain circumstances as set forth by university policy. The illegal possession, use, sale, manufacture, or distribution of any controlled substance is enforced under both state and federal laws. The IUPD proactively enforces these laws and university policies concerning alcohol and drugs on campus, including state underage drinking laws. Violators may be subject to university disciplinary action, criminal prosecution, fine, and/or imprisonment.

Underage Drinking

It is unlawful to sell, furnish, or provide alcohol to a person who is under the age of 21. The possession of alcohol by anyone under 21 years of age is illegal. Organizations or groups violating alcohol/substance policies or laws may be subject to sanctions by the university.

University and Campus Policies

Violators of IU policies are subject to the provisions of applicable laws as well as university disciplinary actions, which may include eviction from campus housing, revocation of other privileges, or suspension or expulsion from the university. Disciplinary action may be taken in order to protect the interests of the university and the rights and safety of others.

University and campus policies pertaining to the possession, use, and sale of alcohol and other drugs are outlined in:

- The IU Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct located at <http://www.iu.edu/~code/code/index.shtml>.
- The IU policy on a Substance-free Workplace (for all staff and hourly employees) located at <http://www.indiana.edu/%7Euhrs/policies/uwide/substance.html>.

Prevention Programs

IU is committed to promoting the health and safety of its campus community through a program of drug and alcohol education and the implementation of relevant policies. Additional information on drug and alcohol abuse education prevention programs can be found within the University and campus policies identified above. IU encourages members of the community who may be experiencing difficulty with drugs or alcohol to utilize one of the following on-campus resources:

- IUPUI Health Services: 317-274-8214

- Campus Center Student Health: 317-274-2274
- Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS): 317-274-2548
- Office of the Dean of Students: 317-274-4431
- Employee Assistance Program (IUEAP): 317-962-2622

Available off-campus services include:

- Family Service of Central Indiana Substance Abuse Services

Sex Offenses

Prevention and Education Programs

IU offers educational programs to promote the awareness of rape, acquaintance rape, and other forcible and non-forcible sex offenses. These programs are offered through:

- Assaults involving the IUPUI community should be reported to the IUPUI Police (317-274-7911) and/or the Office of Equal Opportunity (317-274-2306).
- Immediate 24-hour support is available at the Centers of Hope: Wishard Hospital (317-630-6180) or Methodist Hospital (317-963-3394).
- Counseling and Psychological Services (Walker Plaza #220; 317-274-2548) is available to provide confidential emotional and psychological support to students experiencing sexual violence. Students may be seen by appointment or through walk-in emergency services (9-4 weekdays).
- Faculty and staff may contact the Employee Assistance Program (888-234-8327) for emotional and psychological support.
- Campus Health Services (Coleman Hall; 317-274-8214) is available for weekday on-campus health care.
- Students may also contact the Dean of Students or Student Advocate (Campus Center 350, 317-274-4431) for assistance with related academic or personal concerns.
- Individuals experiencing sexual assault have been the victim of a violent act and experience a wide range of emotional reactions, including anger, helplessness, and shame. Sexual assault can have longterm emotional and physical effects. Please seek support in this difficult time.
- For more information about campus sexual assault prevention, intervention, and response, see the Sexual Assault Prevention, Intervention, and Response page at www.sapir.iupui.edu

Procedures for Victims

Get to a Safe Place as Soon as Possible.

Preserve Physical Evidence.

In the case of sexual assault, it is particularly important to remember that it may be necessary to preserve evidence for use in court or in university disciplinary proceedings. Do not change your clothes, wash, douche, or use the toilet before seeking medical attention, as such activities may result in the loss of evidence.

Contact the Police.

If you are the victim of sexual assault, get help as soon as possible. Report the assault immediately by calling the IUPD at 317-274-7911 or coming to the police department, located at 1232 W. Michigan Street, Ball Annex Indianapolis, IN 46202 in person.

IU Police Indianapolis provides services to victim(s)/survivor(s) of sexual assault. Services provided include on-scene crisis intervention, emotional support to victims, referral services, familiarization with the criminal justice system, and follow-up moral and emotional support

Get Medical Attention

Victims of sexual assault should seek medical attention as soon as possible. This is necessary to mitigate the risk of sexually transmitted diseases or pregnancy and to determine the existence or extent of, and to treat, any physical injury. Additionally, medical personnel will obtain evidence to help in the investigation. Not seeking medical attention could have physical and emotional consequences. Victims of sexual violence may be eligible for certain services at no cost; the IUPD can provide victims with resources concerning health care cost and reporting to your insurance company, as stated in state laws. IUPD personnel will assist a victim with transportation to a hospital, if necessary. Some area hospitals have personnel who have been specially trained to deal with sexual assaults.

- Area hospitals around IUPUI have Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners (SANEs)
- Center of Hope whom works with and advocates for victims are at 5 local hospitals
- Investigators at IUPD are work with and are members of Sexual Assault Response Teams (SART)
- Investigators at IUPD have been trained to deal with sexual assault victims

Reporting and Response Procedures

If you choose to report the incident to the IUPD, an officer will take a statement from you regarding what happened. The officer will ask you to describe the assailant(s) and may ask questions about the scene of the crime, any witnesses, and what happened before and after the incident. If you wish, you may have a support person with you during the interview. IMPORTANT: Reporting an incident to the police is a separate step from choosing to prosecute. When you file a report, you are NOT obligated to continue with legal proceedings or university disciplinary action. YOU can CHOOSE whether or not to participate in proceedings at any point.

There are numerous reasons to report sexual assault to the IUPD, including:

- Assisting the victim;
- Taking actions to prevent further victimization, including issuing a crime alert to warn the campus community of an impending threat to safety;
- Apprehending the assailant;
- Collection and preservation of evidence necessary for prosecution;
- Seeking justice for the wrong that has been done to the victim; and
- Having the incident recorded for purposes of reporting statistics about incidents that occurred on campus.

In the case of crimes not occurring on university property, IUPD personnel will also assist in contacting the appropriate law enforcement agency, at the victim's request.

Counseling Services

Victims may choose to seek assistance from the following on-campus resources:

- IUPUI Health Services: 317-274-8214
- Campus Center Student Health: 317-274-2274
- Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS): 317-274-2548
- Office of the Dean of Students: 317-274-4431
- Employee Assistance Program (IUEAP): 317-962-2622

Victims may also consult off-campus resources, including:

- Center of Hope: Wishard Hospital: 317-630-6180
- Methodist Hospital: 317-963-3394

University Disciplinary Procedures

If a sex offense involves another student, regardless of where the alleged offense occurred, the victim may request that disciplinary action be initiated within the university. The accuser and the accused are both entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a disciplinary proceeding. The outcome of the proceedings will be provided to both the accuser and the accused. This may only include the final determination with respect to the alleged sex offense and any sanction that is imposed against the accused. The victim cannot be required to sign a nondisclosure agreement or to otherwise agree to a prohibition from discussing the case. Notification of final results is made to both the victim and the accused, in the same manner and within the same time frame. Sanctions may include counseling, suspension, expulsion, or termination from the university. More information concerning university procedures for disciplinary action is contained in the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct.

Student victims may also request changes in university classroom, academic, and/or living arrangements; these requests will be granted when such changes are reasonably available.

Obtaining Registered Sex Offender Information

Effective January 1, 2003, Zachary's Law requires sheriff's departments to jointly establish and maintain the Indiana Sheriffs' Sex Offender Registry to provide detailed information about individuals who register as sex or violent offenders at Indiana sheriff's departments. The purpose of the registry is to inform the general public about the identity, location, and appearance of sex and violent offenders who live, work, or study in Indiana. In addition, under the federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, any sex offender who is already required to register in any U.S. state, must provide notice to any institution of higher education in the state(s) in which that person is employed, carries on a vocation, and/or is a student.

- <http://www.icrimewatch.net/indiana.php>

The National Sex Offender Registry links public state, territorial, and tribal sex offender registries together and can be accessed via:

- <http://www.nsopr.gov/>

Preparation of Disclosure of Crime Statistics

The campus IUPD prepares a disclosure of crime statistics and publishes it as part of this Annual Security Report by October 1 each year, adding new statistics for the previous year. Three years' worth of statistics are included for certain types of crimes, as defined in the Clery Act, that were reported to have occurred: on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by the university; or on public property on or immediately adjacent to the campus. Reported crimes that occur in IU-owned houses that are occupied by students, or in IU-owned student apartments, are reported as occurring in on-campus residential units. Reports of crimes and attempted crimes are listed according to the calendar year in which the crime was reported as required by the Clery Act, as are arrests and referrals for illegal alcohol, drug, and weapons violations.

Statistics are based on campus IUPD records and those gathered annually by written request from cooperating local law enforcement agencies, as well as statistics and information on educational efforts and programs gathered from appropriate campus security authorities, including:

Although the following sources are not required by law to provide statistics for this report, statistical information, which contains no personal identifying information, is also requested from:

Each year, enrolled students, faculty, and staff are notified via email when the new report containing the previous year's statistics is made available, generally on or before October 1. In addition, prospective students and prospective employees are notified of the report during application processes.

Statistics are reported using the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR)/National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) classifications.

Appendix A - Crime Definitions

Definitions obtained from the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook, the FBI National Incident-Based Reporting System Handbook (sex offenses only), and 34 CFR 668 Appendix A.

Crime Definitions
Murder/Non-negligent Manslaughter: the willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.
Negligent Manslaughter: the killing of another person through gross negligence.
Sex-Offenses – Forcible: any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Including: forcible rape, forcible sodomy, sexual assault with an object, forcible fondling.
Sex Offenses – Non-forcible: unlawful, non-forcible sexual intercourse. Including: incest and statutory rape.
Robbery: taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.
Aggravated Assault: an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.
Burglary: the unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft.
Motor Vehicle Theft: the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.
Arson: any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.
Hate Crimes: a criminal offense committed against a person or property which is motivated, in whole or in part, by the offender's bias. Bias is a performed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their race, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation or ethnicity/national origin. This includes all of the crimes listed above, plus larceny/theft, simple assault, intimidation and destruction/damage/vandalism of property. Larceny-Theft: the unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. Constructive possession is the condition in which a person does not have physical custody or possession, but is in a position to exercise dominion or control over a thing.

Simple Assault: an unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe laceration, or loss of consciousness.

Intimidation: to unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.

Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property: to willfully or maliciously destroy, damage, deface, or otherwise injure real or personal property without the consent of the owner or the person having custody or control of it.

Arrest: a person processed by arrest, citation or summons.

Referred for Disciplinary Action: the referral of any person to any campus official who initiates a disciplinary action of which a record is kept and which may result in the imposition of a sanction.

Weapons: Carrying, Possessing, Etc.: the violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons.

Drug Abuse Violations: the violation of laws prohibiting the production, distribution, and/or use of certain controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use. The unlawful cultivation, manufacture, distribution, sale, purchase, use, possession, transportation, or importation of any controlled drug or narcotic substance. Arrests for violations of state and local laws, specifically those relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing, and making of narcotic drugs.

Liquor Law Violations: the violation of state or local laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, or use of alcoholic beverages, not including driving under the influence and drunkenness.
