IUPUI HYSTERIA

IUPUI has closed its first intercollegiate basketball season with a 1-1 record. The Normal College team, champion in the seven-team IUPUI undergraduate intramural league, went to Kokomo to play in the I.U. Regional Campus Tournament. The Normals opened the tournament with a 114-75 loss to Kokomo, eventual champion of the tournament, and beat IU-PU Fort Wayne 82-79 in overtime in the consolation round. This gave IUPUI its first intercollegiate athletic trophy, the consolation cup. Two Normal cagers made the tournament all-star team: Ralph Scott, who scored 32 points against Fort Wayne, and Shelton Oakes, who scored 20 against the Kokomoors. A special award went to the IUPUI cheering section, led by a large and athletic delegation from the Normal College. The Normal College team is now playing in the post-season IUPUI intramural tournament.

New Appointment--Ronald F. Bryant, deputy chief of the Marion County Sheriff's Department and a member of the Department since 1957, has been appointed director of the IUPUI Department of Safety and Security. In announcing the appointment, IUPUI Chancellor Maynard K. Hine said, "Mr. Bryant's extensive professional experience and knowledge of local needs are among his special qualifications for this key post. Our growth in both facilities and programs will require continued improvement and updating of this important area of campus service."

The Department of Safety and Security has a number of functions, including fire and safety inspections, emergency and security assignments, traffic and parking control, and investigation of complaints. Bryant has had administrative responsibility for operation of the Sheriff's Department since 1966, and formerly headed the Department's personnel and traffic divisions.

Meeting Set--The Second Midwest Interdisciplinary Meeting will be held on Friday and Saturday at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, Illinois. Sponsored by the Biophysical Society and the Radiation Research Society, the conference is designed to encourage students and younger faculty members to present papers and listen to more broadly-based symposia presentations by experts from other parts of the country.

The meeting consists of an opening symposium on "Interaction of Ionizing Radiation with Cells," two sessions for contributed papers, a workshop on "Biological Consequences of Environmental Radiation," and a "smoker" Friday evening.

The first Interdisciplinary Meeting, held in Chicago two years ago, attracted 400 participants, almost evenly divided between students and faculty/research scientists. Inquiries about this week's meeting may be directed to Dr. J.A. Gross, Department of Life Sciences, Indiana State University, Terre Haute.

HONORS & ACCOLADES

Chancellor Maynard K. Hine has received a letter of appreciation and a citation from Elliot L. Richardson, secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The recognition is for Dr. Hine's service as a member of the Regional Health Advisory Committee, Region V, which aided in planning programs of the Health Services and Mental Health Administration. Dr. Hine also was honored last week by the Indianapolis chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management. He received the group's 1971 award in the area of education at a presentation ceremony Wednesday.

Roger White, a senior sculpture student at the Herron School of Art, has won the $500 Sculpture Award of the Wabash Valley Exhibition sponsored by the Sheldon Swope Art Gallery in Terre Haute. The winning work is called "High Water Mark" and will become a part of the gallery's permanent collection. Two other works by White also were accepted for the exhibit.

An article by Drs. Eugene E. Levitt, John E. Kooiker and James A. Norton appears in the December issue of Current Topics in Clinical and Community Psychology. The title is "Depression and Oral Contraception: Side Effects of Oral Contraceptives; Methodological Problems in Research on the Side Effects of Drugs; Results of a Field Study of Depression and Oral Contraception."
