

green sheet

INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY AT INDIANAPOLIS

iupui

volume four, number forty-two

october 13, 1974

GIVING

The 1974 United Way campaign for the Indianapolis Campus is under way, led by co-ordinators in each of the IUPUI schools and divisions. This year's drive will be a brief, two-week effort, so prompt return of individual pledge cards and gifts will be appreciated.

Campus chairman is Executive Vice-Chancellor Edward C. Moore. Divisional representatives include Jean Mattingly in business, Helen Campbell in dentistry, Merle Draper in education, Howard Wisner in engineering-technology, Maureen Dougherty at Herron, Kenneth Swisher in law, Don Schultheis in liberal arts.

Also Dr. A. David McKinley in medicine, Dorothy Medcalf in nursing, Sue Barrett in physical education, Sue McDowell in science, Karen Neely in social service, and James Peva, SPEA.

Other divisional leaders are Judy Habeeb in student services, Don Franklin for the hospitals, Malcolm Ross for physical plant, Robert Neel in purchasing, David Paul for the Union Building, Bill Cassell for bookstores, John Williams in communications services, Ron Bryant for OSHA, and Personnel Director Tom Duane, whose office in the Allied Health Building will be headquarters for tallying campaign results.

* * *

PURDUE GLEE CLUB ON SHOWCASE MARQUEE TUESDAY

An old friend with new ideas will return to Indianapolis Tuesday when the 56-member Purdue Varsity Glee Club steps onto the stage of the IUPUI Showcase of Music. Traditionally, each new concert season brings a wealth of new material to the Club's repertoire. There is likely to be more this year.

William E. Luhman, in his first year as director of the Purdue Glee Club, is rehearsing the group in a program containing more new songs than the usual but just as likely to please audiences as those of the past 80 years.

Luhman, pianist for the Glee Club for many years, replaces Albert P. Stewart, who last summer stepped down as director, a position he assumed in 1933.

The history of the Glee Club goes back to 1894, but it was something of an "orphan" on the Purdue campus until Stewart took over. The organization then acquired a regular place to rehearse and, gradually, a national and international reputation.

Its big step into national fame came in 1942 when the Glee Club won one of two top awards in the National College Glee Club contest sponsored by Fred Waring at Carnegie Hall in New York City.

(continued)

Other contests and honors followed and in 1949 the Glee Club was selected by the U.S. State Department for a "good will" tour of Europe.

Tuesday's fast-moving, diversified program is drawn from ballads, classics, spirituals and contemporary music. As the Glee Club performs, each selection is spontaneously chosen to fit the pulse of the audience.

The Showcase of Music series is free to IUPUI students who show an I.D. card. Single admission at the door for the concert is $2 for members of the public and faculty.

All concerts in the Showcase series begin at 8:15 p.m. in Room 101 of the Lecture Hall Center.

* * *

CALENDAR CHECK-OFF

Exhibits -- Pharmacy displays this week in University Hospital are Eaton Laboratories on Monday, Mead Johnson Laboratories on Wednesday and Wyeth Laboratories on Friday. Hours are 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Seminar -- "Application of GC-MS to Screening for Metabolic Disorders," Biochemistry Faculty Seminar by Dr. Richard M. Thompson, assistant professor of pediatrics; Medical Science Building, Room 326, 4 p.m. Monday (3:45 coffee).

Tuesday -- "Electrophysiological Studies of Amphibian Bladder," Physiology Seminar by Dr. James T. Higgins, professor of medicine; Medical Science Building, Room 205, 3:45 p.m.

Wednesday/Thursday -- In an effort to co-ordinate the varied aspects of neurobiology (anatomy, physiology, pharmacology, biochemistry) into a multidisciplinary course, a series of distinguished scientists in their fields have been invited to be guest lecturers for the Sophomore Neurobiology Course this fall. This week's guest lecturer is Dr. Malcolm B. Carpenter, professor of anatomy at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons, who will talk on "The Basal Ganglia."

Way Out -- Jerome I. Kaplan, physics, will talk about "Life on a Neutron Star," at the School of Science Dean's Convocation Series meeting at noon Wednesday in the faculty lounge of the Krannert Building at 38th Street.

Free Flick -- "The Learning Tree" will be on the screen in the student lounge of the Krannert Building at 38th Street at noon Wednesday and will be reshowed at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday in Lecture Hall 100 on the Downtown Campus.

Seminar -- "Structure and Function in the Murine Gastrointestinal Ecosystem," Microbiology Seminar by Dr. Dwayne C. Savage, associate professor of microbiology at the University of Illinois; Medical Science Building, Room B14, 4 p.m. Wednesday (tea at 3:30 p.m.)

Joining -- A planning session to discuss the formation of an Indianapolis Westside Lions Club will be held at noon Thursday in the Roof Lounge of the Union Building. Cost of the luncheon is $3.25. If you would like to attend, call Mrs. Myers at Ext. 7457 by 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Seminar -- "Motor Development in the First Two Years," Child Development Seminar by Miss Ruth LaDue, assistant professor of physical therapy; Riley Hospital, Room A534, 2:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday.

Laugh Time -- Julia Meade will appear in the title role of the comedy "Move Over Mrs. Markham" in four performances this week at Clowes Memorial Hall. Show times are 8 p.m. on Thursday, 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and a 2 p.m. matinee on Saturday.

All You Wanted to Know about Life Insurance -- Dr. Joseph M. Belth, professor of insurance, I.U. Graduate School of Business, will present the do's and don'ts of purchasing life insurance for all medical school students Friday. Sponsored by the I.U. School of Medicine Alumni Association, the lecture will be held in Emerson Hall auditorium at noon.

Playbill -- "I Never Sang for My Father," a drama by Robert Anderson, is the next presentation of the IUPUI drama group in the M-Building theater, 902 North Meridian Street. Directed by John Carver, the play will be presented Friday through Sunday and Oct. 25-27. Call Ext. 7659 or Ext. 4935 for information and reservations.

Southbound -- Members of the IUPUI Women's Club have been invited to the Bloomington home of Alice Duncan for their meeting Saturday. Departure time from the Union Building is 2 p.m. If you wish to drive or need a ride, indicate same when you make your reservations. Call Debbie Collins at Ext. 308 or Charmaine Kremer at Ext. 3764 by Wednesday.

In Memoriam

Saturday -- I.U. vs Ohio State at Columbus

Good Old Days -- Bob Crosby, Freddy Martin, Helen Forrest, Red Norvo and Joe Harnell are the stars of "The Big Band Cavalcade," coming Sunday (Oct. 20) at 7:30 p.m. in Clowes Memorial Hall.

* * *

MOVE

Brand-new facilities in Phase IIA of University Hospital will be opened Monday (Oct. 14) when the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology moves into its new quarters on the second floor.

Beginning Monday at 7 a.m., all OB/GYN patients will report directly to University Hospital. About 9 a.m. Monday, patients will be transferred from Coleman to University. Offices in Coleman will make the move this weekend. All telephone numbers will be transferred to the same departments in University but the new labor-delivery switchboard number is 264-3541.

New monitoring equipment and the hospital design will offer, in effect, intensive care units for the mother and newborn. There will be facilities for student and resident teaching, research laboratories and well-appointed examining and consultation rooms.

Included in the OB/GYN section is an intermediate neonatal intensive care unit. This 15-bed unit is designed for newborn who need help but who do not need the extensive facilities for newborn in operation at Riley Hospital.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

On the Town -- The November meeting for members of the IUPUI Women's Club will be an overnight jaunt to Chicago -- Nov. 30-Dec. 1. Bus will leave the Union Building at 6 a.m. Saturday and return Sunday night. The $23 fee includes busfare and double-room accommodations at the Palmer House. A $10 deposit ($5 refundable if you must cancel) is needed with your reservation by Nov. 1. Call Diana Small at Ext. 8275 or Helen Zapp at Ext. 8265.

Reminder -- Deadline for facts-rumors-scoops-news items for the good ole Green Sheet is 5 p.m. Wednesdays. Send your goodies to Room 139 of the Administrative Services Building.

Volunteer Your Teeth -- The Oral Health Research Institute needs adults (18 or older) in the Indianapolis area to volunteer for the clinical testing of toothpastes which affect pellicle (stain) formation. Volunteers must be available from Nov. 4-8 for a dental prophylaxis (cleaning) and evaluation and must be available for intermittent cleanings and evaluations until next May. Persons in the program will get a dental cleaning, toothbrushes and toothpaste--free. For an appointment or more information, call 264-8671 by November 1.

Hosts -- The School of Nursing will be helping out on host duties this week, Thursday through Saturday, during the Indiana Citizens' League for Nursing biennial meeting, held in conjunction with the Indiana Association of Nursing Students annual convention. Among the speakers for the sessions are Magdalene Z. Fuller, assistant dean of nursing, and R. Joyce Bain, assistant professor of nursing.

Lost -- One pair of prescription sunglasses with dark plastic frames. Call Ext. 7364.

* * *

JEANNETTE MATTHEW
 LIBRARIAN, SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS
 420 BLAKE STREET