

green sheet

03
volume eight, number forty-seven 12

november 26, 1978

MADRIGAL DINNERS: POMP AND PAGEANTRY

The popular IUPUI Madrigal Dinners -- complete with pomp, pageantry, and medieval magic -- will be presented for the 13th year on December 8-10 at the Union Building.

The great dining hall will be the setting for this traditional feast and colorful evening. The richly costumed IUPUI Chamber Singers will dine at the high table in a setting reminiscent of the 16th Century. A procession will usher in the wassail bowl, special fanfare will announce the boar's head and the flaming plum pudding. A strolling minstrel will entertain with Old English court songs of the Yuletide season.

The guests will dine on roast beef with Bordelaise sauce, Yorkshire pudding, glazed carrots, au gratin potato supreme, tossed green salad, flaming plum pudding with brandy sauce, rolls and butter, coffee, tea, milk and mints.

After dinner, the Elizabethan customs will continue with carols and madrigals.

The doors open at 7 p.m. each night, and guests are requested to be seated before the grand procession, which starts at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $5.50 per person for IUPUI students and $7 per person for faculty, staff and general public. Tickets may be purchased by mail or at the Union Building Director's Office. For more information, call Ext. 7685. (Reservations may not be accepted over the telephone and all student tickets must be purchased in the office. Student identification required.)

* * *

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE & SOMETIMES WHY

At Herron -- "Plus Six," the current exhibition in the gallery at the Herron School of Art, features the works of six new faculty members and continues through December 22.

Penfield Placards -- Thirty of Edward Penfield's monthly placards for the early Harper's Magazine are on display through January 15 in the Downtown Gallery of the Indianapolis Museum of Art, in the AFNB Building on Monument Circle.

Displays -- Pharmacy displays this week in University Hospital will be Mead Johnson Laboratories on Monday and Savage Laboratories on Wednesday. Ross Laboratories will have a display in Riley Hospital on Wednesday. Hours are 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Sale -- The Indianapolis Campus Book Stores start their annual sale Monday (November 27) in the student lounge in the Union Building. The sale runs through Friday. Hours are 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on Monday, 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Friday.

Seminar -- "Aortic Baroreceptors and Hyperactive Sympathetic Nervous System in SHR," Physiology Seminar by Dr. William V. Judy, associate professor; Medical Science Building, Room 205, 4 p.m. Monday (November 27).

Genetics -- "The Distribution of Genetic Markers and Chromosomal Heteromorphisms in the Kuwaiti Population," Medical Genetics Seminar by Khaled Al-Nassar, graduate student; Riley Research, Conference Room 138, 4 p.m. Tuesday (November 28).

Tip Off -- The IUPUI Metros meet the Anderson College basketball squad on the hardwood at Market Square Arena on Wednesday (November 29) at 5 p.m., followed by the Pacers vs. Knicks game.

Meeting -- The Indiana Thoracic Society, an organization which acts in a medical advisory capacity to the American Lung Association of Indiana, will hold its last meeting of the year on Wednesday (November 29) at 7 p.m. at the Sheraton-West. Guest speaker Dr. Thomas Lavelle will discuss "The Pulmonary Function Diagnosis of Upper Airway Obstruction." The society's program chairman is Dr. Howard Eigen, assistant professor of pediatrics.

Free Flicks -- The avant-garde film series at the Herron gallery continues this week with an 86-minute show of experimental movies from the 1960s. The cinematic sextet includes "T.O.U.C.H.I.I.N.G.," "Runaway," "69," "Diploteratology or Bardo Folly," "Our Lady of the Sphere" and "Bleu Shut." Show time is 8 p.m. Wednesday (November 29).

On Stage -- The IUPUI University Theater will present "A Doll House" by Henrik Ibsen for four performances this week at the theater in the Marott Building, 902 North Meridian Street. Curtain time is 8 p.m. for the production which will be presented Wednesday through Saturday (November 29-December 2). Tickets cost $2 for students, $2.50 for the general public. For reservations, call Ext. 7659.

Snow News Is Good News -- If you like the idea of snow, especially when it falls on mountains, you will probably want to go to the Union Building on Wednesday (November 29) at 8:15 p.m. for a "Ski Night" sponsored by the Student Activity Board. All students, staff and faculty are invited to see movies, watch a ski style show (apparel and equipment), get their ski questions answered and maybe go so far as to sign up for spring semester ski trips. It's all in the cafeteria and it's free.

At CTS -- "Godspell" is this year's holiday offering at the Repertory Theater at the Christian Theological Seminary, 1000 West 42nd Street. Performances begin Thursday (November 30) and run for three weekends through December 17. Thursday through Saturday performances start at 8 p.m.; Sunday performances are at 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. For information call 924-1331.

ISO -- Master Violinist Nathan Milstein will perform the Brahms Violin Concerto with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra in concerts Friday and Saturday (December 1-2) at 8:30 p.m. in Clowes Memorial Hall. Ticket prices range from $5.50 to $8.50. For information, call 924-1267.

Seminar -- "Studies with Isolated Myocytes," Biochemistry Seminar by Ruth Altschuld; Medical Science Building, Room B26, 4 p.m. Friday (December 1).

Chicago-Bound -- Members of the IUPUI Women's Club and their guests will head for Chicago Saturday (December 2) for two days of shopping, restauranting, and sightseeing. Total cost for the round-trip bus ride and room at the Palmer House is $31. For information, call Edna Dotson, Ext. 2451.

Holiday-ish -- "Christmas at the Museum," an annual musical celebration of the holiday season, will be held next Sunday (December 3) at the Indiana State Museum. Starting at 2 p.m., the program will include singers and musicians from Park Tudor School, Arlington, Lawrence Central and North Central high schools. Special exhibits and holiday decor will remain on view throughout December. The museum, at the corner of Ohio and Alabama streets, is open free of charge from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. seven days a week.

* * *

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Citrus Sale -- Each year Kappa Kappa Sigma sells a truckload of grapefruit and oranges to enable unfortunate ones to attend college and to promote medical research in heart disease, cancer and kidney disorders. The prices are 20-pound boxes of either fruit for $5, 40-pound boxes of either for $9. The fruit arrives just in time for Christmas; delivery date is December 12. To place your order, call 291-1432 or 297-3821.

Move -- The Division of Allied Health Sciences central office has moved again, this time to Coleman (CF) 134. The phone's the same, Ext. 4702.

Programs -- The next regularly scheduled new employee orientation is December 4. Two programs for supervisors will be held in December: "Staff Meetings as a Supervisory Function" on December 5 and "The Supervisor and the Interviewing Process" on December 12. If interested in either or both, please call Ext. 8241.

Increase -- Admissions to I.U.'s External Degree Programs have increased by 57 percent since last February, according to a recent study. Current totals for those admitted at all campuses come to 1,770 students. Of the total number of students admitted and enrolled, 1,317 have had previous college experience and most enrollees (1,238) are aiming at a bachelor of general studies degree. The average student is 34 years old.

Visitor from England -- Dr. Daniel Nolan, chief of gastrointestinal radiology at Oxford University will be visiting professor at the radiology department soon. Those interested in gastrointestinal diagnosis are invited to hear him lecture on December 4-5 from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Fesler Hall, Room 211-B.

Calling Columbus -- The Columbus Campus has a new phone number, Ext. 2786, to be used to reach all faculty and staff there.

Campus Mail -- To avoid delays, please address all campus mail completely, with department, building and room number, regional campus or other location. And don't forget to complete the return address.

Titles -- Mrs. Judith O. Smith, who was appointed acting manager of the Payroll Office replacing Ruell Fiant, has been appointed payroll manager. And Mrs. Velma Teal in the Personnel Office has been appointed as a recruiter for the SM and FS bi-weekly employees. She replaces William Schilk.

Dinners -- Committees of the Junior Chapter of the Food Service Executive Association are selling tickets ($1) each for two free dinners at selected Indianapolis restaurants. The winning tickets will be announced the first week of finals. If interested, go to the School of Engineering and Technology or contact Raymond A. Dault in the Department of Restaurant, Hotel and Institutional Management.

Applications -- Riley Memorial Association Pediatric Research Grant Applications will be due February 5. Research proposals are limited to those subjects which deal in matters pertaining to children and which are conducted in Riley Hospital. Application forms are available in the Dean's Office, School of Medicine, Fesler Hall 318, or call Ext. 2346.

Evaluation -- During the week of December 4, the School of Medicine Library will distribute a library evaluation form to its patrons, with the aim of better service to the health science community. The co-operation of users in completing this evaluation will be appreciated.

Healthy? -- Starting Friday (December 1) faculty and staff can buy half-year memberships in the Union Building Pool and Health Club for $13 each. The memberships are effective through June 30, 1979. For more information, call Jeff Widner, pool manager, at Ext. 7142.

* * *

SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULED

"Mexican-American Sex Roles and Migrant Health Services in Indiana" will be the topic for a public symposium this week, sponsored by the Department of Anthropology, School of Nursing and the Indiana Family Health Council, Inc. The session will be held Tuesday (November 28) from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Roof Lounge at the Union Building.

Speakers will include Ken Barger, Barbara Jackson and Susan Sutton from the anthropology faculty and Shirley Karlson, assistant dean of nursing.

All interested persons are encouraged to attend the program which will emphasize how problems and solutions in inter-ethnic programs can be identified.

green sheet

*News Bureau
Indiana University - Purdue University at Indianapolis
355 Lansing Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202

NEIL MATTHEW
RM 415 ~~HERRON ART~~
CA HALL