WE DID IT! NOTES THE CHANCELLOR

IUPUI's United Way Campaign for helping our neighbors in 1989 has reached over 100% of our goal. With more donations coming in even as the campaign drew to a close, we can now declare unqualified victory! Our campus goal was $190,000, an impressive 17% increase over last year.

To all of the campaign volunteers who asked for pledges, to all who gave unselfishly, and to the departments that had 100% participation, THANK YOU AND CONGRATULATIONS! Special accolades are due for Campaign Co-chairs Emily Wren and Mike Cozmanoff.

We've helped a good cause that will make life better, in dozens of ways, for thousands of our fellow citizens in the Indianapolis region during the coming year. We should all be proud of that achievement.

Sincerely,

Gerald L. Bepko
Chancellor

IUPUI PEOPLE PUSH US OVER TOP

Staff, faculty and students gave more to this year's United Way Campaign than was expected by the United Way of Central Indiana and more than ever before. People of all ages and with all sorts of needs who are assisted by the 68 United Way agencies in Marion and surrounding counties will benefit from our generosity. With only a couple of exceptions, every school and division either matched or gave more than last year. Nearly half of us pledged, and in some units and departments, everyone gave something. Commitment came from many --not only in money, but in time and work. Morrison's Catering helped, Karen Marks dared to have "Dare Night" which generated pledges, and Lucy Conso and others were in there helping us help our neighbors.

FIRE FACTS CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE

A hot quiz. Where is the fire alarm box nearest you and how does it work? Must you use the key, or can you force the alarm? What does the fire alarm in your building sound like and where is the nearest exit? Even if you know all the answers, it doesn't hurt to go over them in your head once in awhile, so that if fire breaks out, you can act quickly. Lowell Black from IUPUI's Fire Protection Services has these reminders for you:

In Case of Fire

CALL FOR HELP--Main Campus and 38th St.--4-2311
Herron--9-911

BE PREPARED to give the following information (It only takes 30 seconds.):
Your building, floor and room number
The type of fire--electrical, paper, walls, etc.
Your name
Phone number where the call can be returned

Finally, it is mandated that buildings be evacuated in the event of a fire alarm. Don't let skepticism or the belief that the fire alarm is a drill defeat the protection provided you. (Oh, yes. You do not need a key for a fire alarm box--just use a little muscle. Fire alarms are different all over campus--some are horns, some chimes, some bells.) Fire Protection Services has the answers to your fire questions. Call 4-8000.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Word for Thesaurus--Peter Mark Roget's "Thesaurus of English Words and Phrases" was first published in 1852, 177 years after his birth in London on Jan. 18, 1779. He also invented the slide rule and lived to the ripe, old, mature, finished, completed, ready age of 90.

Freud's Beginnings--Dr. Lazaros C. Triarhou, M.D., will speak on "The Early Neurohistological Studies of Sigmund Freud" in the next meeting of the John Shaw Billings History of Medicine Society, Inc., Jan. 23, 4:15 p.m., Emerson Hall. Dr. Triarhou, who is originally from Greece, will focus on Freud's early scientific career as a neuro-histologist in the Institute of Physiology, headed by Ernst Wilhelm von Bruecke of Vienna. All welcome.

Celebrate--IUPUI's Dr. Martin Luther King Celebration is Jan. 16. Daytime events are in the auditorium of the Conference Center. Morning activities begin at 8:30 a.m. Kuumba Theatre of Chicago performs at 1 p.m. The Black Student Union's annual dinner is at the West End. Tickets are required.

Union Flats--The Real Estate Department is now supervising the operations of apartments in the Union Building. Call 4-8267 with any questions about them.

Need Subjects--The Oral Health Research Institute, School of Dentistry, is seeking volunteers with a history of frequent episodes of recurrent aphthous ulcers (canker sores) for a clinical research study. The study will access the effects of a toothpaste containing aloe extract and allontoin for the prevention and treatment of the lesions. Will receive $50 at study's end. Call Andra Eason, 4-8822.

Two-Timer--Investigative reporter Andrew Schneider, who has twice won the Pulitzer Prize, has been named the J. Stewart Riley Professor of Journalism for the School of Journalism. This semester he will teach "Depth Reporting and Editing" at IUB, and "Investigative Reporting" on this campus.
ETHICS OF TENURE TOPIC OF SPRING GATHERING

The ethics subcommittee of the IUPUI Learning Resources Committee will present a panel speaking about the moral and ethical implications of tenure on Mar. 3, 3:30-5 p.m., in the auditorium of the Conference Center. Two former university presidents--Dr. John Ryan of I.U. and Dr. Gene Sease of U. of I.--will join Dr. Susan Zunt, former secretary of the IUPUI Faculty Council, on the panel. Dr. Conrad Cherry, director of the Project on Religion and American Culture at IUPUI, will moderate. Faculty from IUPUI and other universities and the public are welcome; there is no fee and no registration. Dr. Carlyn Johnson, who heads the ethics subcommittee, asks that you watch for a flyer about the presentation and mark your calendars.

ROMAN REGALIA TO BE THE ATTIRE FOR THE JANUS BALL TO BENEFIT HERRON

An art preview at Herron and a dinner and dance at the Murat Temple will highlight the Janus Ball Jan. 20. It is the first event of its kind to benefit the exhibition and visiting artists program of the Herron Gallery, Herron School of Art. The event is named Janus after the mythical Roman god whose two faces look forward and backward at the same time, "Much like the universality of art itself," said Vaughn Hickman, who is co-chairing the event with Dorit Paul. The event begins with a cocktail preview of the new Herron Gallery exhibition, "Boundaries: A Tradition of Drawing at the Herron School of Art," from 5:30-8 p.m. Dinner follows. While it is not a prerequisite, guests are encouraged to wear Roman dress, as will sponsors and volunteers working in the event. Tickets are $60 for Citizen, $100 for Patrician. Call Robert Roman, 923-3651.

HISTORY TO HOST FIFTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

"Indianapolis: The Black Experience" is the title of the Fifth Annual History Conference of the Marion County/Indianapolis Historical Society, Jan. 21 at the Union Building. Beginning at 8:30 a.m., there will be four sessions that will address various aspects of the black experience in Indianapolis and elsewhere. Sessions include: Early Black Images in American Film, Educational Opportunities for Blacks in Indianapolis and Black Population and Settlement Patterns in the Antebellum City. The public and the campus community are welcome. The conference fee is $5, lunch is $12.50, or $15 for both if you preregister. To register, call 632-2083, 636-7278, 4-3811. For more information, call Ralph D. Gray or Philip V. Scarpino, Dept. of History.

AN EXHIBIT OF HISTORICAL PHOTOGRAPHS OF INDIANAPOLIS GERMAN AMERICANS has been mounted in the reception room of the University Conference Center. The photos are drawn from the Athenaeum Turners collection in University Archives and include many from the first two decades of this century. They show activities of the Normal College of the American Gymnastic Union, forerunner of the I.U. School of Physical Education. The IUPUI Special Collections and Archives, under the direction of Eric Pumroy, has arranged the exhibit. It was made possible by an Indiana Heritage Research Grant, a program of the Indiana Humanities Council and the Indiana Historical Society. The exhibit will be on display until March. For more, visit LY 320, or call 4-0464.
BANNER MONTH AT IUPUI

Nearly 250 colorful banners will fly from utility poles throughout our 350 acres for about a month. They mark IUPUI's 20th Anniversary. Each banner is 2 feet 5 inches by 8 feet, and they were installed by folks from Physical Plant. They are adorning poles on Michigan and New York streets, from Meridian Street westward through campus. Should you notice that banners are not installed on the medical side, it is because the type of utility pole there does not accomodate banner brackets.

NEW CENTER'S LILLY LOBBY TO BE NAMED AFTER BENEFACCTOR Mrs. Ruth Lilly will contribute $500,000 to the International Center for Nursing Scholarship, being built on campus. Entry to the center will be called the Ruth Lilly Lobby in commemoration of her gift, which brings to $3.2 million of the $4 million goal committed for the nursing research and educational facility. Members and clubs of the honor nursing society Sigma Theta Tau International, which will share space in the new facility, have provided more than $1.5 million for the project. It is the first capital campaign ever to be conducted by a nursing organization. Completion of the new building is expected late this year.

FINALLY...

...the IUPUI Foreign Language Schools for Children and the Indianapolis German School (Indianapolis Deutschschule) are offering language classes for children ages 5-13. French, Spanish, Japanese and German Language Schools are open. Sessions are conducted for 12 Saturdays, Jan. 28-Apr. 29, from 9 a.m.-11:30 a.m. in the Mary Cable Building. The fee is $70, or $126 for attend-with-a-friend. Call 4-5052.

...IUPUI is on the cable TV airways throughout the month with "Consider This...," a program on contemporary politics, and "IUPUI Forum." This month on "Consider This..." Sam Graves will talk with Dick Fredland and Charles Winslow from political science about Libya and the PLO. "IUPUI Forum" this month features artists and others involved in Clayfest VI, a joint endeavor of Herron and the Indiana State Museum. Check your TV listings for channel and time. These presentations are produced by IUPUI Special Media Projects, directed by Amy Warner.

...several seminars are coming up. In chemistry, Peter Carr from the University of Minnesota will present "Recent Developments in the Theory and Practice of High Performance Liquid Chromatography in Bioprocess Technology" on Jan. 18, 4:30 p.m., KB 231. In physics, Han W. Paik of IUPUI presents "Baryon Production in Electron-Positron Annihilation at PEP" on Jan. 25, 3:15 p.m., KB 131. In microbiology/immunology, Janet N. Arno, from the Div. of Infectious Disease, School of Medicine, presents "The Immune Response of Individuals with Chlamydial Infections" on Jan. 19, 4 p.m., MS 326.
