NATIONAL JUNIOR ACHIEVERS CONFERENCE

MEWS

INDIANA UNIVERSITY . BLOOMINGTON, IND.

No.

Tuesday, August 23, 1966

*FREE COCA-COLA and all you can drink is *available in the recreation rooms in the *basement of McNutt Main. **********

*************

SOUVENIR SALES TOP $1,100

"We have grown accustomed to the sight of achievers with their hands full of money," comments Jack Van Nest, head of the the general assembly. Tommorrow begins a souvenir shop.

Mr Van Nest reports that in the past two days achievers have purchased over $1,100 worth of goods. This year's supply of hats, refered to as Sweeny Beanies, were completely sold out the first day of the conference. The shortage of Sweeny which were left in storage.

"This year achievers are spending money as if it were going out of style. The supply of T-shirts and sweatshirts is almost gone and the Little Herby supply is greatly reduced."

Canadian dollars are posing a problem for the sales staff, as the Canadian dollarup tonight. Most of the campaigning will is worth 92 cents of the US dollar. But they are being accepted at face value.

Van Nest compairs the souvenir shop to "life in a bargain basement." This is just board composed of this year's officers and where the shop is, in the basement of McNutt Main building. The daily hours are: 7-8am. 12-1:45 pm and 4-7:30 pm. All items are sold at cost.

RECREATION ACTIVITIES IN FULL SWING

A softball game between the delegates and counselors is scheduled for 4 pm Thursday in Sembower field located across from McNutt dorms. Counselors Sash Lanz and Tom Schober will lead the counselors while Chris Suensder and Dave Peters will lead the delegate team. The Counselors will be trying to make a comeback after suffering a sever defeat by the delegates last year.

A football game chalenge has been made of the counselors by delegates lead by (continued on page 2, col 1)

CANDIDATES SPEAK TONIGHT

Enthusiastic and ambitious candidates kickoff their campaigns tonight at the auditorium when they address the delegates at day of long and concentrated campaigning for victory when the polls open on Thursday morning.

The validations committee is expected to be finished with validations tonight but will not announce the validated candidates until the general meeting. Each candidate B eanies is due to water damage to the hatswill give a short talk on his qualification for office and on his opinions on various conference issues. Officers elected by this year's conference will serve for the coming one year period and will officiate at next year's national conference.

Bulletin boards giving the qualifications of validated candidates will be set take place on Wednesday. Candidates will be shaking hands all day.

Validated candidates are chosen by a previous conference office holders. Those validated will be chosen from among the 58 delegates who appeared before the validations board.

The Elections committee warns that no campaign materials which have the name of some business enterprise on them (with the exception of JA enterprises) may be used to promote the candidates. All candidates have had their campaign materials approved by the Elections committee. No materials whatsoever may be used that have not been approved by the committee.

Ed Mosler, vice-chairman of Junior Achievement, Inc. and past president of JA, will address delegates prior to the introduction of candidates. Mr Mosler has become a familiar face around the conference as he marks his 12th year of attendance.

The topic of Mr Mosler's speech has not been announced.

(continued from page 1, col 1) P.J. Jocek, Cleveland and Jim Bratton, Dallas. If the counselors accept the chalenge, the game will be played on Wednesday at 4 pm in Sembower. field.

Swimming facilities are available in an outdoor pool located across the street from Briscoe dorms. The pool is open from 1:30-5:30 pm and from 6:30-8:00 pm daily. Admission cost is 40 cents. Tennis courts located on Fee lane and behind the new stadium open to delegates who wish to play

Some sports equipment to include footballs, softballs and a volleyball may be borrowed from the recreation headquarters in the basement of McNutt Main, T his equipment may be borrowed during scheduled recreation periods. the general assembly. Tommorrow begins a

DELEGATE'S LUGGAGE STILL NOT HERE

gningigdmen herest

It was 6 pm Monday and still no luggage. This was the plight of several delegates among them Candi Blessing from Redmond, Washington. Candi and other Washington delegates which includes Joyce Harvey, Bruce Milne and Dave Clark left Seattle at 5:30 am Sunday. After two flights and a limousine ride the delegates arrived, sans luggage. Somewhere between Chicago and the airport at Bloomington some of the luggage was misplaced. The search went on through the night as Candi dreamt of spending the rest of the week in one suit of clothes.

**************** ENTERTAINMENT IN MC NUTT

A piano, lead guitar, rhythm guitar and a steel chair were used to provide entertainment for about 400 delegates yesterday afternoon in the basement of McNutt Main.

P.J. Jocek, Cleveland, Paul Brown, Marion, Chio, Greig Aitken, Montreal and Dave Peters, Indianapolis decided to "just get together in the McNutt lounge and startmake sure delegates do not bring Coke into playing." year (see Englished Al, to not geome

THE MENU for the evening meal on Tuesday will consist of stuffed pork chops, carrot strips, hot spiced apples, cole slaw, cherry pie and coffee, tea, milk or lemonade. Wednesday morning's breekfast will consist of Orange or pineapple juice, grilled eggs, cream of wheat or cold cerea teast with jelly and coffee, tea, milk or cocoa.

marks his 12th year of stiendance. The topic of Mr Mosler's speech has not

MISS JA SEMI-FINALISTS ANNOUNCED

Contestants in the Miss JA contest have been cut to only ten girls who still vie for the female's top honor in Junior Achievement.

Named as semi-finalists are Linda Allen, Columbus, Ga; Karen Beard, Danville, Ill; Judy Edstrom, Lafayette, La; Gayle Harvey, Phoenix, Ariz; Mary Orley, Grand Rapids, Mich; Glenda Roberts, Charlotte, N.C.; Barb Schirmers, Minneapolis, Minn; Laura Sharpe, Houston, Tex; Linda Vieira, New Bedford, Mass and Ruth Wesner, Detroit, Mic!

Today each girl will model and undergo an interview on her knowledge of JA and business. This evening the finalists will be selected and will be further tested on Wednesday. 201 Half Abel almost typnom souvenir shop.

HARDENBROOK EXPRESSED JA PLEASURE

National President of Junior Achievement Inc, Donald Hardenbrook, told achievers Monday that he is proud of his position with JA and called JA one of his most worthwhile projects.

He urged stimulation of other students to join JA so the business world will see the need for the organization. Stressing his interest in JA, Mr Hardenbrook stated that JA is one of the most constructive forces in America today.

HOUSE COMMITTEE IS BUSY GROUP

The group of enthusiastic delegates who are usually seen with a red carn ation in their lapel and a smile on their face are members of the House committee.

The responsibilities of this committee a varied, but their main task is supervising the seating of delegates at general meeting During the Coke break, committee members the auditorium. At the same time other mem-not to litter the grounds with paper cups.

"The House committee cannot do it alone, said Jim Fischer, Maumee, Ohio, who is chairman of the committee. "The way delega can help most would be for them to enter the diforium in single file. This would speed taking attendance." yanya so III ther ways to help would b prriving early for meetings, remembering wh heating ermanactive is being used and to ill all seats starting at the front.

(continued on page 2, col 1)