Conference on The Bible in American Life

The Center for the Study of Religion and American Culture will host the Conference on the Bible in American Life at the Sheraton Indianapolis City Centre, August 6-8, 2014. The Conference is the culmination of the Center's three-year study of how Americans use the Bible in their daily lives, outside religious services. In addition to sixteen sessions, the conference will include a public plenary talk by noted historian Mark Noll on "The Bible: Then and Now." Read more and register for the Conference here.
