Welcome Back!!!

We hope you had a safe and enjoyable Winter Break, and an even happier New Years! As you return to your classes and the every day activities associated with academics, you can expect the same attention to detail and exemplary service with distinction from the employees here at Adaptive Educational Services!

Look around as we may have added or moved a few things on our site, and don't forget to check out the latest edition of our newsletter: "The Collaborator!!"

A brief word about Service Animals:

Be sure to take a look at our video below which gives a snapshot of our services and what to expect with first time visitors, as well as resources to navigate campus for students, faculty and staff alike.

AES would like to formally acknowledge all the faculty and staff who gave their contributions during the 2010-2011 academic school year click the banner above to see if your name or school was mentioned.
