IU-Purdue Blood Donor Challenge Oct. 14–Nov. 15

The battle for blood is on! The sixth annual IU vs. Purdue Blood Donor Challenge is underway, and you can help IU win the friendly competition. Donate blood at any of the six Indiana Blood Center locations in the Indianapolis area and help save lives.

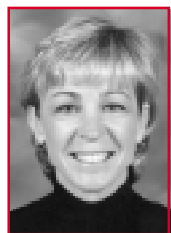

Every donation that IU fans make will count in this competition, which runs Oct. 14 until Nov. 15. The university with the most blood donations will be honored at the IU vs. Purdue football game on Nov. 23 in West Lafayette.

The blood drive is sponsored by the IU and Purdue alumni associations, Indiana Blood Center, and the American Red Cross.

IUPUI Jaguars Tip-off Luncheon Friday, Nov. 15

The sixth annual IUPUI Jaguars Tip-off Luncheon will be on Friday, Nov. 15, at the Hyatt Regency Indianapolis (downtown). Registration begins at 11:30 a.m., and the luncheon is at noon.

This year's guest speaker will be Nell Fortner, head coach and general manager of the WNBA's Indiana Fever. IUPUI men's basketball coach Ron Hunter and women's coach Kris Simpson will also preview their upcoming seasons. (We also apologize to Coach Hunter for listing his name incorrectly in the spring issue of the newsletter.)

Nell Fortner

Individual tickets are $40 each; a table of 10 is $350; and a sponsor (table of 10 plus special recognition) is $500. Reservations may be made by sending your check, payable to the IU Foundation, to: IUPUI Tip-off Luncheon, c/o Chad Williams, 355 N. Lansing St., Indianapolis, Ind. 46202. Tickets will be held in your name at the registration table. For more information, contact Chad Williams at (317) 274-5453 or chewilli@iupui.edu.

The luncheon is sponsored by the IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis. GO JAGS!

Win Tickets to the IU-Penn State Football Game

On Saturday, Nov. 16, Penn State will be in Bloomington for the final home game of the football season. We hope fans will pack Memorial Stadium to cheer on the Hoosiers against the always powerful Nittany Lions.

For a chance to win a pair of tickets to the game, send your name, address, and phone number to Cathy Randall, 4285 Springwood Trail, Indianapolis, Ind. 46228 or log onto our club Web site at www.alumni.indiana.edu/clubs/indy and click on "Win Penn State Tickets" to make your entry.

Deadline for entries is Thursday, Nov. 7. Members of the Board of Directors of the IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis and employees of the IU Alumni Association are not eligible. Tickets will be mailed to the winner.

Volunteer Opportunity with the Pacers

In conjunction with the Party with the Pacers Night on Nov. 29, the IUACI community service committee will be helping the Pacers Foundation raise money to support their programs. IU alumni volunteers will sell 50/50 raffle tickets before the game and during the first half. The Best Locker Room (a restaurant on Conseco's event level) will be open to participating volunteers during the second half, where they can watch the game on TV and purchase food and beverages.

Volunteers will need to be at Conseco Fieldhouse by 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 29. Those who wish to attend the pre-game reception (see front page article) will be able to join the Pacers Foundation group at 6:35 p.m. at the conclusion of the reception. Be sure to order your reception tickets using the form on the front page.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Kathy Raver at raver@hju.com or 845-5218, by Nov. 4. Kathy will provide you with an application that must be filled out to get credentials for the evening.

The Pacers Foundation is dedicated to inspiring and motivating youth to become involved in community activities, take their education seriously, set personal goals, visualize their dreams, and take responsibility for their own lives and neighborhoods. To learn more, visit its Web site at www.nba.com/pacers/news/Foundation_Index.html.

2003 Economic Forecast Breakfast Thursday, Nov. 7

The 2003 Economic Forecast Breakfast featuring the IU Business Outlook Panel will be held Thursday, Nov. 7. The breakfast will begin at 7:30 a.m. in the Columbia Club, Ballroom, 121 Monument Circle, Indianapolis.

The Business Outlook Panel, featuring Indiana University faculty experts in economics and finance, will provide an economic forecast, identify key topics of concern to decision-makers in Indiana, and discuss issues pertinent to the business and government sectors in 2003. The panel is known for its ability to identify key economic trends, internationally as well as locally. You are encouraged to bring friends and business associates to this popular event.

The breakfast and program are sponsored by the Kelley Alumni Club of Indianapolis, Kelley School of Business, and the IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis.

Advance registration is required. To make reservation or for additional information, contact the Kelley School of Business at (812) 855-6340 or visit its Web site at <http://kelley.iu.edu/alumni/calendar.cfm>. The cost is $25 per person for alumni association members and $30 for non-members. Tables of ten are $275. Reservations will be held in your name at the door, and the reservation deadline is Nov. 4.

Coaches DiNardo and Davis Coming to Your Living Room Every Sunday Morning

The IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis is a proud sponsor of IU Athletics' Sunday morning TV programs. During football season, you can watch Coach Gerry DiNardo talk about his football program every Sunday at 11:30 a.m. on WTTV. Beginning Dec. 1, talk switches to basketball with Coach Mike Davis at the same time and place.

Help Hoosiers for Higher Education Promote Indiana University in the Legislature

Fall and winter are important times for legislative advocacy activities. Hoosiers for Higher Education urges you to learn which legislative candidates in your area support higher education and Indiana University, and then be sure to vote on Nov. 5.

Elected officials listen to their constituents. A note or e-mail to your legislator can go a long way toward ensuring that there is adequate state support to provide access to higher education for all citizens of Indiana, and that IU's reputation as a quality institution is not jeopardized by a lack of state funding. You can find current contact information for your legislators through the HHE Web site, www.indiana.edu/~hbe, and click "my legislator".

Scholarships

The IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis is excited to have the opportunity to offer financial assistance to students whom we believe will excel in their studies and in their chosen professions. Our scholarship committee accepts applications from students from Hamilton, Hancock, Hendricks and Marion Counties who will be attending any of IU's eight campuses.

For the 2002-2003 academic year, our scholarship recipients are:

- Cameron Beatty from Indianapolis, a freshman at Bloomington studying business. Cameron is a first-generation college student.
- Elizabeth Gist from Camby, a freshman at Bloomington studying broadcast journalism/photojournalism/editing. Elizabeth wants to be an editor for a major magazine.
- Munir Khatri from Indianapolis, a graduate student at the IUPUI School of Medicine studying pediatrics. Munir told us a trip to Pakistan last fall created a new awareness for him of what is going on in his native country and reinforced his appreciation for America.
- Theresa (Tracy) Martin from Indianapolis, a senior at IUPUI majoring in English. Our committee was so impressed with Tracy that this is the second time she has been awarded this scholarship.
- Elizabeth (Lizzy) O'Bryan from Indianapolis, a freshman at Bloomington studying education. Lizzy wants to be a high school chemistry teacher and coach varsity soccer.

We want to thank our scholarship committee members, who devote many hours to reviewing applications, interviewing candidates, selecting recipients, and assisting the Admissions Office with high school preview nights: Mary Susan Buhner, David Frederick, Kim Quillen Hobbs, Betty Landis, Kathy Perry, Janette Pittsford, Mary Elizabeth Rudd, Lacy Wooten, and Chairperson Kristi Engle Gaynor.

If you know of a student who is interested in applying for the IUACI Scholarship, go to our Web site at www.indiana.edu/~alumni/clubs/indy. Click on the Scholarship link for more information, and a downloadable copy of the application.

We are also pleased to provide a $500 scholarship as a part of the annual IUPUI Ferocious Feast celebration. The scholarship is given each year to the academic unit having the largest number of alumni participants in IUPUI's Homecoming equivalent. The winning academic unit selects the student for the award. The 2002 scholarship went to Rachel Gilmour, a senior at the IU Kelley School of Business in Indianapolis majoring in management.

Our scholarship program is funded through an endowment. If you would like to contribute to our scholarship endowment and help us build toward additional scholarships in the future, send your tax-deductible contribution, payable to the IU Foundation, to Kristi Gaynor, 5415 N. Pennsylvania St, Indianapolis, Ind. 46220.

The IU Alumni Club of Indianapolis is governed by a board of directors. In addition to our regularly elected board, we are fortunate to have the guidance of three of IU's finest as ex-officio members. We are the only club to have the benefit of student members who represent both the Bloomington and Indianapolis campuses. These are the people who are serving the club in these capacities for 2002-2003.
