MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT

AGAIN we are gathered by the calm and cool waters of our own Elkhart Lake, the Turner Chautauqua, to look backward upon the glorious past of our organization and to plan for a future that shall realize the dreams of the fathers. Let us be calm and cool as that lake, for the times require wisdom and courage.

The world is plunged in blackest pessimism, and even the United States, usually secure and supercilious, echo with voices of doubt and foreboding. In the midst of such depression, the Turner outlook is rather encouraging. There has been little recession in membership, despite adverse economic conditions, and heroic work has been done to prepare for the high tide of recovery.

Incidentally we have had a fine opportunity to point to the Fundamental Principles of the Turners, which show the way out of the world's chaos and tribulation. Your National Executive Committee has not lost sight of this opportunity. Among other things a memorial was sent to the Congress and the Senate of the United States, adjuring them to turn aside from petty politics, dictated by forces of intolerance and special privilege, and to follow the enlightened philosophy of Jefferson and Paine, as set forth in the Turner Principles.

The response was astonishing, for scores of our national legislators wrote to say they would study the document. A few even expressed approval and admiration in words indicating they really had read what was sent them. I am not so naive as to expect any radical improvement in consequence, but the cruel lash of experience will bring about reform.

We are paying the price of war, prohibition, race prejudice, and economic greed. There is the diagnosis of the disease. The Turner prescription, "liberty, education and a better world," is the only cure.

Though we do not expect any immediate action, it is our duty to keep on preaching these truths. So many things for which the Turners have stood in the past are now in the laws of our land, that we need not despair of further progress.

Periods like the present are not unknown in the world's history. To political thinkers they are known as "reaction;" the biologist calls it atavism or a throwback.

Let us beware of atavism or throwbacks in our own ranks. Let us keep aflame the old Turner spirit and pass the torch of truth and light on to the younger generation.

That reminds me of something I said in my last annual report. Let me repeat it now:

"Perhaps the present Bundesvorort or National Executive Committee has already held the reins too long. Perhaps we are getting weary and growing stale. Young blood with fresh ideas and new energy should be summoned to the work. I ask all Turners to weigh this matter carefully, and assure them that we shall be glad to retire and make way for the Young Guard."

Every convention puts fresh duties and heavier burdens upon the National Committee. Many of these things remain undone because there is too much to do and ordinary human beings can do only one thing at a time. Conscious of our inadequacy, we yet have a few items of progress and achievement to set over against the counts where we have been derelict or lax.

I believe the problem of establishing a national Turner organ in the English tongue may be solved through the reports which the special committee will render to this convention.

I believe the demand for an Instructors' Aid and Retirement Fund will be met by the splendid action of the two Cleveland Societies—the Sozialer Turnverein and the Germania Turnverein Vorwaerts—who are planning to launch the Fund with a donation of $5000, which will be augmented to more than $10,000 by other sums already in hand.

The next matter we must take up will be the future of our Normal College, a magnificent institution that should have a permanent home.

We must show more of the spirit of sacrifice and liberality. We are shamed by the rich gifts poured forth to perpetuate superstitions and tyrannies. Can we not do as well for the cause of freedom and justice?

Our missionary efforts must never be relaxed. We must recruit new members. We must organize new Turner societies. We must swell the Jahn Educational Fund and the Instructors Fund about to be established. We must redouble our efforts in the field of Mental Training, which have been much stimulated by the labors of Mrs. Marie B. MacDonald.

Above all we must enlist the young men in our great cause. For two years I have been sounding a "call to youth," and last year I asked you not to be afraid to elect young men to this convention. Youth must carry on to new victories the beautiful Bundesbanner presented to the Turners by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Your National Executive Committee has done the best we could to serve the American Turnerbund, to justify the trust reposed in us. And we have been deeply moved by the evidences of your faith in our efforts, which often seemed to us woefully inadequate. And now we are more than ready and willing to surrender our authority to stronger hands and younger heads, to insure fresh progress and new victories.

GEORGE SEIBEL

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

STATISTICAL RESUME

Again we have to report a loss of members for the year ending January 1, 1931, though not nearly as heavy as the preceding year. The downward trend in membership seemingly is checked, and we hope that with the passing of the present depression our membership will increase steadily.

The Turnerbund now consists of 21 Districts with 157 Societies, the same number of Districts with two more Societies than last year.

The New England and Connecticut Districts combined into the New England District. The Nebraska District again joined the Bund.

The following Societies either disbanded, withdrew, or combined with other Societies during 1930:

Mt. Oliver Turnverein, Pittsburgh District.
Northwest Gymnasium, Ohio District.

The following Societies joined the Bund during 1930:

Germania Turnverein, Roxbury, Philadelphia District.
Concordia Turn Section, Altoona, Pa., Pittsburgh District.
Muscatine Turnverein, Upper Mississippi District.
Southside Turnverein, Omaha, Nebraska District.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Many societies that have never remitted the Special tax are in the Delinquent List because no one in their membership has brought the matter to the attention of the meeting. Such societies should find a special incentive to adjust these arrears in the resolution passed by the Convention in Philadelphia—that one-half of such arrears paid shall be turned over to the Jahn Educational Fund and one-half to the Instructors' Fund.

If your society is in the list, call attention to this in the meeting.

The Jahn Fund income during the past years has mostly been permitted to augment the Fund, but more and more is being used to promote Mental Training. The two German plays at the Buffalo Turnfest were guaranteed by the Jahn Fund, which covered the deficit. The German Turnfest film was secured by the Jahn Fund. Lectures have been subsidized and books have been sent to the libraries of societies that use their libraries. Chairmen of Mental Training Committees are requested to let the Fund know of their activities and needs.

Here's a Hint For All Turners

As the Jahn Educational Fund is a permanent endowment, which will grow to ever greater proportions as the years pass, there will be many Turners, no doubt, desiring to make provision in their wills to perpetuate the principles of Turnerism through this Fund. For the guidance of such Turners the following form is given to write into their wills as a codicil:

*I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Jahn
Educational Fund of the American Turnerbund, the sum of _____ Dollars*

COMMITTEE ON NATIONAL ORGAN

The Committee provided for by the Philadelphia Convention of the American Turnerbund, to discuss plans for a national organ in the English language, met at Chicago on Saturday, February 14, in the Atlantic Hotel. It was composed of Walter A. Kirkpatrick, Otto Kallmeyer, Frank Pfustler, G. P. Berkes Jr., Karl Priemer, and the President of the Turnerbund ex-officio.

The work of the Committee was greatly facilitated and shortened by the preparatory labors of Turner Berkes. This young man had prepared a plan so thoroughly thought out and so promising that little remained for other members of the Committee except to express their approval and admiration.

Turner Berkes has been in the publishing business for some years, and knows all its branches. He has also been a Turner all his life, and narrowly escaped being born in a Turner hall. He is imbued with business principles and Turner ideals, and his plan is both modern and workable.

Every member of the Committee was connected in some way or other with publishing and printing enterprises, either in the editorial or the business department. Every one of them judged the plan submitted by Turner Berkes from the standpoint of its utility to the Turners and its financial possibilities. Every one approved of the plan unreservedly and complimented Turner Berkes upon his hard work and fine results.

Of course the question of editorial policy and Turner control of the projected publication was discussed, and an elastic formula was found as follows: that the new publication should be devoted to the cause of physical education and mental enlightenment, that it should concern itself largely with news and history of the Turner movement, and that it should contain no matter at variance with Turner principles. Beyond this it was deemed inadvisable to limit the scope of the proposed publication.

On the financial side it was recognized that the publication should be a private enterprise, since its success would depend on the industry and intelligence of the people who conduct it. There should, however, be an advisory committee of Turners. The thought was advanced that in the event of large profits ultimately accruing from the publication, there might be provision for a surplus fund, part of which might go as an additional bonus to the publishers, another part to the expansion of the enterprise, and some percentage to the furtherance of Turner causes.

While this is a personal report, and each member of the Committee has written a similar personal report of the sessions, all are in substantial agreement upon every point advanced by one another, and all are enthusiastically unanimous in approving the Berkes plan and recommending it for adoption.

GEORGE SEIBEL,
National President.

Report of Turner Kirkpatrick

February 18, 1931.

To the National Executive Committee:

In conformance with the resolution adopted at the National Convention (Bundes-Tagsatzung) in Philadelphia, I am reporting the opinions and recommendations of myself, as chairman of the special committee appointed by President Seibel to consider plans for a National Turner publication.

Appointed by the President, and at his call, we met in Chicago on February 14 and 15, 1931. Present were Turners George Seibel of Pittsburgh (35 years in editorial and typographic work); Otto Kallmeyer of St. Louis (for 27 years connected with the St. Louis Republican); Walter Kirkpatrick of Philadelphia (for 12 years with the United Business Publishers); G. P. Berkes of Chicago (for 7 years with the American Restaurant and other publications); Frank Pfustler of Chicago (editor of "Harmony"); Karl Priemer of Madison, Wis. (with Kable Brothers Printing Establishment, publishers of many fraternal and society papers). Present also in an advisory capacity and on invitation were Turners Strass and Saltiel, of the Illinois Turnbezirk.

Turner Berkes presented to the committee a very complete plan for a publication. He had spent several hundred dollars of his own money and untold hours for weeks previously working out the details, consulting with authorities and preparing a "dummy" issue.

His plans and suggestions were carefully discussed. The conception of the publication appealed, I believe, to the entire committee.

Turner Berkes is submitting direct to national headquarters the complete details of his plan, and I believe it will prove most satisfactory and practical for the American Turnerbund. I recommend its acceptance in the main, with provisions to protect the interests of the Turner organization, because

- 1) It will give the Turners a national publication of which we can be exceedingly proud.
- 2) It will provide an excellent outlet for discussion and recognition of Turner activities, making possible the practical realization of many things heretofore buried for lack of adequate publicity.
- 3) The proposed publication, as projected, will undoubtedly hold its own in appearance, prestige and eventual influence with anything now in the field.
- 4) The Turner organizations take no financial responsibility.
- 5) The Turner organizations will need no expensive staff to operate the publication.
- 6) Turner Berkes is young, enthusiastic, courageous, intelligent and experienced. He is thoroughly Turner-trained, yet thoroughly familiar with the American audience and habits. He is progressive and combines to a unique degree practically all the qualifications the Turners could hope for in the individual to operate our national organ.

He is, in my opinion, a "find" within our own ranks that I would not have dared hope for even in my most optimistic moments. I think we should not delay in giving him our endorsement of his plan and our cooperation.

The editorial policy of the new publication, the proposed name of which ("re-creation") is quite suitable, should and can be broadly dictated by the Turnerbund through several general specifications agreed to by Turner Berkes, as

- 1) It shall be devoted to the cause of physical education and mental uplift.
- 2) Each issue shall contain news of Turner activities.
- 3) Nothing shall be published conflicting with the principles of the Turners.

I recommend that the masthead or title page of the publication carry each issue the names (and perhaps publishing connections) of an Editorial Advisory Board, which I recommend be composed of not more than five members, appointed from the ranks of the Turner societies, two of whom should be recognized as authorities on the technical side of practical turning and physical education, and all of whom should be progressive and experienced in magazine publishing.

I recommend that in sending notice to the various societies about these plans you call attention to the fact that every member of the committee which met in Chicago has had substantial publishing or printing experience and is now actively connected in some way with such work. They were, therefore, particularly qualified to pass judgment on the merits of any publication plan, and I believe their recommendations in connection with Turner Berkes' plan carry the weight of men who know the subject well.

I believe we should cooperate with Turner Berkes in beginning publication as soon as he sees fit.

On this plan, I do not believe it necessary to take a referendum of the societies for approval as provided in the National Convention resolution (of which I was sponsor), since that resolution applied only to a plan in which the Turnerbund would be its own publisher and assume all the work and financial responsibility, none of which it does in the Berkes plan.

I hope the publication can be launched as quickly as its promise of success seems to justify. From the standpoint of business conditions, I consider the next few months a most favorable period to launch a new project like this.

With Turner Greetings,

WALTER A. KIRKPATRICK,
Chairman of Special Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MENTAL TRAINING

With the adoption of the recommendation of the National Committee, for the formation and encouragement of Debating Contests between Societies and Districts, by the National Convention held at Philadelphia, our Director of Educational Work, Mrs. Marie B. MacDonald, was given an opportunity to aid and foster such contests. Several district bodies, notably those of Ohio, New York, New England, and the Lake Erie District, had much success along these lines, which was reflected by the increased number of participants in the "Essay Contest" and other mental features at the Buffalo National Festival.

We are warranted in ascribing this success to the untiring efforts and wise guidance of Mrs. MacDonald. She has recently returned from visiting the Societies west of the Mississippi River and those of the Pacific Coast. We should aid and encourage her in the arduous task of attempting to re-awaken the members from their "Rip Van Winkle" sleep of inactivity. We owe her much; the least of which should be, to lend her our active and material support in promulgating the doctrines of Turnerism.

We congratulate the officials of the New York, Ohio, New England, Lake Erie, Indiana, and West New York Districts on the good work done along these lines; especially the success obtained by the individual members of the Vorwaerts Turnverein of Brooklyn; those of the Louisville Turngemeinde; Holyoke Turnverein of Massachusetts; the Socialer Turnverein of Detroit, the Buffalo Turnverein of West New York, and several others.

Our accomplishments in this field, when compared to those obtained in the physical field of our activities, would indicate the predominating tendency to regard the latter as being of major importance to the cultivation of Mental Activities! In reality it is solely a means towards a definite end. Its object is to develop and prepare the physical part of man for the housing of a sound, active and energetic mentality! Where is the faith of our founders? Without faith, there can be no vision! Without vision, there can be no progress!

Our hearts and minds should be inspired with the necessity and wisdom of bringing about renewed interest for the cultivation of Mental Activities, the very lifeblood of our organization! The graduates of our Normal College should have the opportunity to become thoroughly grounded and familiarized with the aims and objects of the Turners. They should recognize and appreciate what they have been enabled to enjoy, and what they owe to the Turnerbund and their Alma Mater. They should, at all times and under all conditions, represent and elucidate the ideals and principles of the organization.

We are not suffering so much from a decreased membership, as we are from the lack of capable and determined leaders. It should be the pride of each member of the Turnerbund, especially those who have broad conception of its aims and objects, to use his influence and prestige towards enabling the faculty of the Normal College to engage the services of educators, whose duty it shall be to prepare and equip the student body with those educational qualifications, which will permit them to cope with their contemporaries in the field of education. The results obtained by Mrs. Marie B. MacDonald point with unquestioned assurance to the need of additional workers in this field.

It is little more than six years since the founding of the "Jahn Educational Fund." Whilst the subscriptions obtained up until the present day have not reached $50,000, indicating a lack of perception of its value on the part of our members and the friends of progressive ideas, the possibilities it holds forth for the promulgation and extension of Turnerism surely should be apparent to all.

Your Committee awaits your consideration and favorable action on the suggested change of Rules and Regulations governing Mental Activities at National Festivals. Its adoption will facilitate the successful conduct and close of these festivals.

The Prize Essays of the 1930 Turnfest at Buffalo have appeared in book form. The price of the English book, 88 pages, is 25 cents. The price of the German book, 30 pages, is 15 cents.

Don't you think it a good idea for your Turnverein or District to order some extra copies of these books while they last?

You may also be interested in the "Gedichte" of the late Victor Wicke, the German-American poet who contributed so generously to the Jahn Educational Fund. We have some of his poems (75 cents bound in cloth; 40 cents bound in paper), and the entire proceeds of the sale goes to the Jahn Fund. Address:

TURNERS' NORMAL COLLEGE

The Normal College of the American Turnerbund is now conducting the twenty-fourth course since its removal to Indianapolis.

Improvements were again made during the year at Camp Brosius, Elkhart Lake, Wis., where the summer sessions are being conducted, and where a four weeks' course in camping, etc., is given the regular class at the close of each school year. The hotel operated in connection with the camp has found favor with members and friends of the Turnerbund, and was well attended during the season. It is hoped to make Elkhart Lake the Turner Chautauqua.

The Board of Trustees of the Normal College consists of the following: President, George Vonnegut; Secretary, Dr. C. B. Sputh; Treasurer, Theo. Stempfel; Leo M. Rappaport; Karl H. Heckerich, Minneapolis; Carl H. Burkhardt, Buffalo; Dr. Rudolph Hofmeister, St. Louis; Grover W. Mueller, Philadelphia; Emil Rath, President of the College and Dean of the Department of Theory and Practice of Physical Education; Dr. C. B. Sputh, Dean of the Department of Science and Hygiene; W. L. Richardson, Dean of the Department of Education, Social Science, and Languages.

The faculty, consisting of thirty-four instructors, includes members of the teaching staff of the Indiana University, Butler University, and the Indianapolis high schools. The following courses are offered:

A four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Physical Education (B.P.E.) and to certification as Teacher of Physical Training for Elementary and High Schools:

Graduate Courses leading to the degree of Master of Physical Education (M.P.E.)

A three-year course leading to certification as Teacher of Physical Education for Elementary and High Schools in States which will grant licenses upon three years' preparation.

An elementary two-year course, open to male non-matriculants who have attained a high degree of proficiency in gymnastics (gymnasts of the second or third grade) and meet such additional requirements as may be prescribed, including a satisfactory knowledge of German. Students who complete this course receive a certificate attesting that they are qualified to teach physical education in schools maintained by societies of the American Turnerbund.

Summer courses, comprising special courses in the theory and practice of physical education and in related subjects. These courses are open to persons qualified to pursue profitably the work chosen by them. Credit and certificate will be given for work satisfactorily completed.

Complete information about these courses is given in the catalogue of the Normal College and in the special summer session program, sent on request.

Beginning with the year 1919-20 the Board of Trustees of the Normal College has offered seven scholarships to members of the American Turnerbund (one for each of the circuits), consisting of free tuition for the two-year course. Full information about these scholarships will be sent on request.

The 27th convention of the Turnerbund decided to offer similar scholarships to 22 members (one for each of the districts), without the high school education required for those mentioned above, consisting of one year's free tuition for the elementary course. Complete information will be sent on request.

Report of the Treasurer of the Normal College

For the School Term from July 1, 1929, to June 30, 1930

The Normal College fiscal year closes on June 30; hence a complete report can be given only for year 1929-30. A report for 1930-31 will be ready for the convention.

OUR TURNER CHAUTAUQUA

There is no pleasanter place to spend the hot summer than on beautiful Elkhart Lake, where the summer school and camp of the Turnerbund is located.

To the shores of this lovely Wisconsin Lake come hundreds of Turners, old and young, to rest and meet friends.

The Turners have a fine cottage hotel right on the grounds, and there are other places where rooms and board can be secured at reasonable rates. Address inquiries to

Normal College,
American Turnerbund,
415 East Michigan St.,
Indianapolis, Ind.
