

International Developments and Opportunities

Susan Buck Sutton
Associate Vice President of International Affairs
January

INTERNATIONALIZATION:

The wise, informed, and responsible Engagement of students, faculty, staff, and the institution itself in the global networks that shape us all.

(IUPUI Working definition 2008)

Why internationalize at IUPUI?

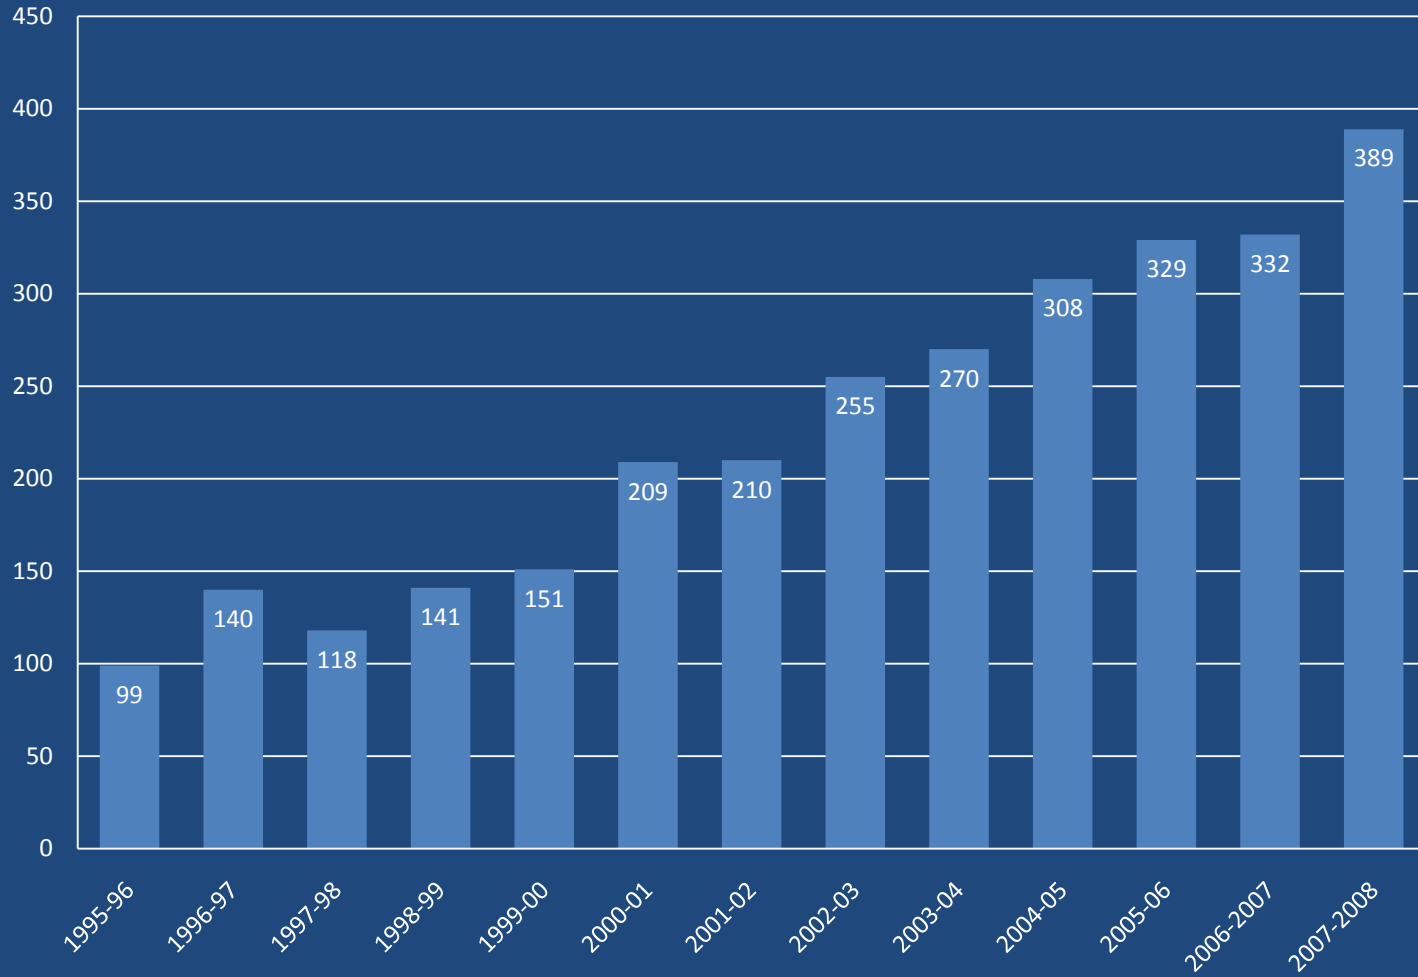

- To prepare students for lives and careers in a globalizing world
- To enhance the international activities and connections of central Indiana
- To connect to the best and brightest scholars in the now globalized arena of research
- To extend IUPUI's long-standing commitment to civic engagement outward to the global community
- To reach students and disciplines not generally included in internationalization

Total International Enrollment by Level includes international exchange students

Number of IUPUI Students Abroad

Moi University, Kenya

Support for new initiatives

- Internal grants (hand-out)
- Office of International Affairs
- Office of Research
- Center for Teaching and Learning
- Center for Service Learning
- International Council

Current Reviews Required for New International Projects

- New Study Abroad Programs

<http://www.indiana.edu/~overseas/policies/>

- Partnerships and Affiliations

<http://www.indiana.edu/~ovpia/ovpia/agreements/>

- Off-shore programs

<http://www.indiana.edu/~ovpia/offshoreprograms/>

Role of OIA in these reviews:

- Proposals must be routed through OIA.
- We provide assistance, expertise, advice.
- We present IUPUI interests and concerns in policy discussions.

So, what's on your minds with respect to these reviews?