

C2

volume eleven, number five

february 8, 1981

RYAN CITED BY IUPUI, GETS KEY TO CITY

Indiana University President John W. Ryan has received praise from the IUPUI campus and a key to the city of Indianapolis for a decade of service to I.U. The surprise presentations were made at a reception hosted by President and Mrs. Ryan, January 30, in Indianapolis.

I.U. Vice President (Indianapolis) Glenn W. Irwin, Jr., read a resolution approved by the Council of Deans, the Board of Advisors, and the Executive Committee of the Faculty Council at IUPUI observing that Ryan completed his tenth year of service as chief executive officer of the university January 26. The resolution praised him for his service to I.U., the state of Indiana, and to higher education.

Indianapolis Mayor William H. Hudnut III presented Ryan with a key to the city while thanking him and Mrs. Ryan for their leadership that has benefited the city and the state.

* * *

SPOTLIGHT ON IUPUI

When the much-coveted 1982 National Sports Festival gets under way in Indianapolis a year from July, IUPUI will be the site of many events. The eight-day athletic extravaganza promises to draw some 2,500 athletes, many of whom will be stars in the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles. If current plans hold, most of all of the swimming and diving events will be scheduled for the natatorium (which will have made its debut the previous month with the 1982 Senior National Long Course Swimming Championships). Track and field stars will do their thing on the proposed 29-acre athletic fields area west of the natatorium. (Current plans call for seeking a $1.9-million allocation from the General Assembly to build a track and playing fields. Contingent upon that funding, private-sector donors are supporting contribution of gifts of $1.9-million more to build a 10,000-seat stadium.) The selection of Indianapolis as the site for these prestigious games is a feather in the community cap, and a giant step forward for IUPUI recognition--locally and nationally.

* * *

What They're Saying -- Thomas W. Moses, president of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce and chairman, president and CEO of the Indianapolis Water Co., was the subject of a profile story in The Indianapolis News last week. Commenting on the future of IUPUI, he said: "I think that place is the greatest thing since sliced bread."

* * *

WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE AND SOMETIMES WHY

Pharmaceutical--University Hospital, Monday, Kremers-Urban Company; Wednesday, Parke, Davis & Company. Riley Hospital, Wednesday, Dista Products Company; Friday, Adria Laboratories, Inc.

Biochemical--"Localization and the Metabolism of PNS Myelin Protein," Biochemistry Seminar by Dr. Richard Peterson, professor of anatomy, I.U. School of Medicine; Medical Science Building, Room 326, Monday at 4 p.m. Coffee and tea, Room 409, 3:30 p.m.

Physiological I--"A possible role for glucose in the early development of diabetic microangiopathy," Physiology Department Seminar by Dr. H. Glenn Bohlen, assistant professor of physiology, I.U. School of Medicine; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Monday at 4 p.m.

Continuing Medical Education--"The Geriatric Patient," continuing education course organized by the Department of Family Medicine of the I.U. School of Medicine for Hoosier family physicians. Indianapolis Downtown Hilton, Monday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Genetics I--"The Tryptophane Operon: Promoter, Operator, and Terminator Sequences," Medical Genetics Seminar by Joanna Schwartz, graduate student in the Department of Medical Genetics; Riley Research Wing, conference room 138, Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Physiological II--"Adrenergic Influence on Peripheral Lung Function," Physiology Department Seminar by Dr. Daniel J. Crittenden, research associate, Department of Physiology, School of Medicine, East Carolina University; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Tuesday at 3 p.m.

Biological--"Mode of Action of the Herbicide Trifluralin (Treflan)," Biology Department Seminar by Dr. Dan Hess, Department of Botany and Plant Pathology, Purdue University; Krannert Building (38th Street Campus), Room 357, noon Tuesday.

Faculty Council--University Faculty Council meets from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Indiana Memorial Union - Bloomington.

IUPUI Staff Council--Brown bag lunch for all employees sponsored by the IUPUI Staff Council, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday, Room S119, I.U. School of Dentistry. (Bring lunch, questions, suggestions and concerns for informal discussion.)

Genetics II--"The Nuclear Organizing Region and Acrocentric Association in Parents with Down Syndrome," Medical Genetics Seminar by Janice Smith, graduate student, University of Alabama; Riley Research Wing, conference room 138, Wednesday at 12 noon.

Converse--The IUPUI Center for American Studies will sponsor a "Collegial Conversation" this week featuring Professors Edward C. Moore, Christian Kloessel and Max Fisch. The topic will be the ideas and times of the American philosopher Charles Peirce and the IUPUI Peirce Project, which is publishing his collected works. This conversation will not be a formal presentation, but an informal discussion among colleagues. All interested faculty members are invited to attend, and refreshments will be served. The time is 1 p.m. Wednesday, the place is Cavanaugh Hall, Room 208.

Collegial--"Martin Center College: A New Approach to Higher Education in Indianapolis," presentation by the Rev. Boniface Hardin, founder and president of Martin Center College, sponsored by the Inner-City Y's Men's Club and the YMCA of Greater Indianapolis, noon Wednesday, The Athenaeum, 401 E. Michigan Street. For reservations call the Metro YMCA office, 635-5417.

Grand Rounds--"Estrogen Receptors," Grand Rounds in Oncology by Dr. Clarence Ehrlich, associate professor of OB-GYN, Radiation Therapy Building, Room R-104, 11 a.m. Wednesday. Open to all residents and medical, dental and nursing students.

Chemical--"Organic Chemistry Without Solvents," Chemistry Department Seminar by John E. Bartmess, Indiana University; Krannert Building, Room 231, Wednesday at 4:30 p.m.

Black Heroes/Heroines--"Harriet Tubman and Sojourner Truth," presentation and film in series sponsored by the Black Student Union and the Black Life Academy; Lecture Hall, Room 102, Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

Child Development--"Central Auditory Processing Disorders," Child Development Seminar by Dr. Robert W. Keith, director of the Division of Audiology and Speech Pathology at the University of Cincinnati; Meiks Conference Room, Riley Hospital, Fifth Floor, Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

Physiological III--"Coronary Blood Flow Changes Following Activation of Adrenergic Receptors in the Conscious Dog," Physiology Department Seminar by Dr. Patricia A. Gwartz, special instructor, Department of Physiology, University of Oklahoma; Medical Science Building, Room 205, Friday at 3 p.m.

Hoosier Science Teachers--Several IUPUI students and teachers will participate in the 11th Annual Hoosier Association of Science Teachers convention Friday and Saturday at Stouffer's Indianapolis Inn. Luncheon speaker Saturday will be Dr. J. Allen Hynek, Center for UFO Studies, Evanston, Illinois.

Musical--"Brigadoon" will be presented Friday and Saturday by Footlite Musicals at the Hedback Community Theatre, 1847 N. Alabama Street. For information call 926-6630.

ISO--Yuval Yaron, winner of the triple prize in the 1975 Sibelius Competition, will be the featured soloist in Glazunov's Violin Concerto in A minor with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra Friday and Saturday in Clowes Memorial Hall at 8:30 p.m. Call 285-1539 for information and tickets.

Advance Notices--February 16, "Brazil in a Nutshell", travel film with Clay Francisco, I.U. Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. For ticket information call Auditorium box office, (812) 337-1103.

February 16, "Dynamics of Ovarian Function", Physiology Seminar by Dr. Janice M. Bahr, associate professor of physiology, University of Illinois; Medical Science Building, Room 205, at 4 p.m.

February 17, Nursing Research Colloquium, 12 noon, Room 305, School of Nursing, "Environmental Supports, Personal Autonomy, and Well Being of Family Member Caregivers of Aging" by Shirley Karlson, R.N., Ed.D.

February 17, P.J. Gibson, internationally acclaimed poet and playwright, "Quality and Message in a Commercially Oriented Society;" Lecture Hall 102 at 8:15 p.m.

NEWS 'N' NOTES FROM HERE 'N' THERE

Think Affirmative--In resubmitting its annual Affirmative Action program, IUPUI reaffirms its and the university's commitment to the long-standing equal opportunity policy. Affirmative action involves planning, coordinating and monitoring the implementation of equal opportunity policies, requiring organized and documented efforts affecting the status of employment of women, minorities, the handicapped, disabled veterans and veterans of the Vietnam era. At this campus, Lincoln V. Lewis (Administration Building, Room 126) is the Affirmative Action officer. If you have any questions regarding the university's Affirmative Action policies, call him at Ext. 3863.

Award--A cash award of $200 is presented each year at the School of Liberal Arts Honors Convocation to a student who has written an outstanding paper on a subject of historical interest. The award is named in memory of Professor Theodore Thelander Jr., a member of the history department from 1947 to 1971. Competition is open to all undergraduates at IUPUI. Papers submitted need not have been written for class assignments; independent research and writing projects also will be considered. Papers must be typewritten and include citations (in standard footnote form of the source materials. Deadline for receipt of papers at the history department office is March 13. More information is available in the history department office, Cavanaugh 504L.

Retiring--Sigmund J. Sidlik, grounds maintenance foreman with the Physical Plant, will retire March 27 after almost 13 years with campus grounds maintenance. He plans to continue landscaping and grounds care, go fishing, and visit Florida. Joan Simpson, electron microscopist with the Department of Dermatology, will retire March 1 after 18 years in the same position. She will fish, play the organ, paint, and do crocheting and landscaping.

Appointment--Earl Bryant has been appointed Acting Assistant Director for Mailing Services effective January 1. He replaced the retiring Robert Commons. Any questions relative to Mail Services or the campus post office should be directed to Earl at Ext. 8598 or 8209.

To Close--Beginning Friday, February 20, the IUPUI Financial Aid Office will close each Friday due to the high volume of 1981-82 financial aid applications that must be processed. Communications with University offices will be handled by telephone.

China Trip--Social, cultural, and economic life in modern China will be discussed in a slide presentation by Dr. Shou-Eng Koo, professor of economics at IUPUI, who recently returned from his second extensive trip to the People's Republic of China. The program will be held Tuesday in the Harrison Room of the Union Building from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m.

Cricket--Do you miss playing cricket? Or would you like to learn? We would like to form a cricket club at IUPUI. Please contact Aslam Siddiqui (Ext. 8831 or 253-7880) or Mervyn Cohen (Ext. 2951 or 873-6586).

* * *

(MATT-720118)

JEANNETTE MATTHEW
LIBRARIAN, SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS
420 BLAKE STREET