MOM PROJECT CELEBRATING THIRD BIRTHDAY

Birthdays have a double meaning for the MOM Project started by the School of Nursing, so the project's third birthday celebration will be extra special for the workers, the dozens of babies born under the project's watchful eye and their mothers. A birthday party to celebrate those birth days is planned for Feb. 9 at the Broadway United Methodist Church community room, 609 E. 29th St. The party will run 11 a.m.-2 p.m. and will feature photos of the children and their mothers, birthday cake and door prizes. The project was started to help reduce the city's high infant mortality rate. The MOM Project includes the MOM-mobile and Care Coordination Teams, which are used to deliver pre-natal care in areas which lack those services through traditional systems. — Sandy Matthys Roob
