Parliamentary procedure wrangles have been a regular feature of the By-Laws committee for the past twelve years of NAJAC. There is one exception to the rule. Unanimously passed each year is the statement thanking the Coca-Cola Co. for its generous contribution of free cokes.

This year, however, NAJAC will have the opportunity to personally thank the management of Coca-Cola in the person of Mr. Franklin M. Garrett. Mr. Garrett, Public Relations Director of Coca-Cola, will be present at the general meeting this morning as an honored guest. Let's really show our appreciation to Mr. Garrett and the Coca-Cola Company.

INTERNATIONAL GRADUATE ACHIEVEMENT

Founded in November of 1959 in the state of Delaware, International Graduate Achievement Incorporated is rapidly spreading throughout the nation. This program provides an opportunity for graduates of J.A. to aid deserving achievers by providing for them and doing research on the success stories of former achievers.

What is the graduate Achievers Organization? It is a legal corporation, an alumni association, and an international service organization combined.

Any person who has been a member of a J.A. company for at least one year and is no longer eligible for participation in his area may join. A fee of $2.00 dues is paid by 1960 graduates and a $4.00 fee is paid by graduates of former years.

Any person interested in the graduate program may go to Room 101 for brochures and membership cards.

IMPORTANT NOTICE !

Discussion group minutes must be in Room 12-101 by 1:30 PM. All Workshop and special committee secs. have minutes in (same place) by 5:00 P.M.

SPORTS

Through the help of Mr. Sweeney, Mr. Joe Francomano, Ed Athon and many other counselors and achievers, a softball program has been organized.

Eight softball teams were formed consisting of six boys' teams and two girls' teams with 85 achievers participating. The first game was played yesterday and the results were published in the paper. Today Unit 9 will play Unit 7 and the winners of this game will play a team consisting of Units 2 and 10. The winner will receive a trophy.

Today at 4:15 there will be a game between the winners and a select group of counselors.

Also, the winner of the Unit games will be presented a trophy.

The participants in the softball games appreciate the help of Mr. Heffner, Duke Morris and Ron Spangles, who were among those active as umpires.

LOCAL TALENT MAKES GOOD

The hard work and long practicing of one hundred gifted achievers highlighted the gala Talent Show last night in the auditorium. Lee Bright, Chris White and John Rimarcik were a few of the many responsible for its success. The program included a "Push Button Radio" skit repeated by popular demand and presented by Duke Morris, Rich Ptacin, and Denny Wayson. "My Fair Counselor," a satire on the conference, starred approximately 60 counselors. The long-awaited announcement of Miss J.A. climaxed the star-studded evening.

CONFERENCE CROONER

Who is this guy that makes like a choir-master in the Bermuda shorts? His name is Robert Richards. He was born and raised in Philadelphia, Penn. After attending the U. of Pennsylvania he joined the professional staff of the Y.M.C.A. He is a veteran of the second World War.

He first became interested in J.A. through a vice president of United States Steel in Pittsburgh. For the past 27 years he has been working with teen-agers. He was a "Y" secretary until he accepted a position with Junior Achievement.

After joining J.A., he spent 3 months organizing it in Butler, Pa, and 4 months in Southeastern Michigan as a center director at what is now the Harper Center. He also spent one month in Fort Wayne, Ind. raising funds for J.A. After this he moved to Peoria, Ill., where he is now located. He describes his affiliation with J.A. as a "continuing post graduate course in business"

GENERAL MEETING TODAY

Today's general meeting at 9:00 A.M. will be under the direction of Mr. Heffner.

RETURN TRAVEL

All luggage must have the owners' name attached to it and must be placed in the proper zones which will be announced. Busses will be assigned to corresponding zone numbers.

PICTURES AND PINS

Due to some unknown malfunction a few people were partially left off the right hand side of the group picture. For them a special picture will be made at one P.M. in the central breezeway.

Conference pins and the pictures will be distributed as soon as the latter arrive

PERSONALITY PROFILES

Since 1946, Jim Sweeny has been a member of the staff of Junior Achievement, Inc. and has been Conference Director since 1948. From his long experience, he thinks the Conference will get through the rest of the week O.K. A resident of Fanwood, N.J., Jim is married and the father of two sons, one of whom, "Chip" is a Conference veteran himself with two to his credit. When asked if he likes that ever-popular drink, Coca-Cola, Jim answered "I sure do!"

Henry Heffner thinks "this is the most wonderful conference I have ever attended". This is his third conference. With J.A. for 11 years, Mr. Heffner attended Northwestern U and is the father of three, one of whom, Suzanne, is a counselor this year. He is, he says, just a little over twenty nine.

DETROIT TOPS INDIANAPOLIS

Tuesday afternoon, August 23, 1960, a football game was played behind the Coke tent. Contending teams were S.E. Michigan and Indianapolis. The former won with a little help from a big Texan, coming back from a 0-4 deficit to capture the game 6-4. Standouts for Detroit were Denny (broadshoulders) Hodge and Dick, (sure hands) Figura, who snagged a long pass for the winning touchdown.

INTERNATIONAL SCOUT

"Junior Achievement is just fabulous!" This is a mighty big compliment coming as it did, from German-born Mario Kiechmann, the Explorer Scout. He can be proud to list among his accomplishments two years a Post president, president of the S.E. district of Milwaukee and President of the Milwaukee Scouting Council. He has been in Scouting since he arrived here eight years ago and recently attended a White House Conference where he met President Eisenhower. Five months ago Mario became a U.S. Citizen and Tuesday night he became an Achiever.

"ODE TO J.A."

Ash trays, dolls, and candy,
Coasters, lamps, and toys.
Would you believe these things were made
By teen-age girls and boys
Well, I'm telling all you people
Who may be non-believers
That all these things plus more are made
By a group called Junior Achievers
We meet on the average 'bout once a week

On specific days, you see.
And with the help of adult advisors
We form our company.
We choose a product we want to make
One we're able to create well.
We handle the whole operation ourselves;
We plan, but materials and sell.
The company's supported by stockholders
Who get dividends if all goes right.
Officers are chosen to lead us on,
And how we love salary night!
Here in JA we've got a plan
Called IJAC, and it's the best.
Our directors name is Jim Sweeney;
We know that he leads all the rest
As for me, I've met many a friend there.
And you may know that it's true when I say.
That I'm planning on coming back next year
'Though our companies break up in May.
Rosalie Shonfield
Chicago, Ill.

ANNOUNCEMENT

On Friday, August 26, all Delegation
Chairmen will check out with the Travel Coordinator in the West Breezeway before departing from campus. Special early departures prior to 12:30 p.m. on Friday, will check out with Ron Roman in the Information Office.

GOT A DATE FOR THE EVENING?

We'll see you all at the PRESIDENT'S BALL this evening at 8:30 p.m. - 12 a.m.
in the main dining hall.

NEXT WEEK WE HAVE TO GET ORGANIZED

"SPICY TALES AND WITTY REMARKS" STOP THE PRESS!!!

NAJAC may last forever...Joanie Rabideau, East Springfield, Mass. fell asleep during the Industry Award contest--they can't finish.

Marsh Nelson, South Bend, Ind. (C)
"Don't tell anybody I'm here."... we won't.

FLASH!!

Chicago has been found-- Detroit is covering for them.

Steve Palton of Dayton, Ohio claims they were to bring Wilber and Orvil Wright...but their chovels broke!

Gary Kuhn, Fort Worth, Texas, claims his Exec. Dir. won't play poker
for money--- we wonder!

Apologies in order to Dearborn-- Lollipop is not the delegation chairman.

*TODAY'S QUOTE*

"Next week we've got to get organized!"

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS THE FIVE COMMANDMENTS

1. Stay out after curfew--it keeps the counselors from getting sleep.
2. Don't speak to anyone you didn't come with--then if they're passing through your city, they won't have to stop and visit you.
3. Throw your refuse on the ground--
then we won't have to come back here next year.
4. Get on the wrong bus or train -- you can see the country that way.
5. Give another's number to the lunch line checker -- you can help someone else lose weight.

POEM FOR THE DAY

Love is like the sun,
Where it rises, so do men.
Love is like a shadow,
Where it falls, so do men.
