Record

following this Pres. Kruse Said that he had appointed a committee on Sept. 12 1950 to translate the Constitution and to this Date he had not had a report from said committee. after a short discession a motion was made and Carried That nothing be changed in the Constitution except the time that would authorize us to conduct the meetings in English. following this a motion was and Carried that the Pres. appoint a Committee to Contact Bruder Hermann at the Institution and to get his point of view in regard to Sick benefit in his case, and said Committee to make a report at the next business meeting. Then another motion was made and Carried That said Committee make a report of Expenses involved in this assignment so the Society could reimburse them. As nomination of Officers was in order it was decided to have nomination and Election on May 8th 1951.

As there was no further Business dues were then collected the Receipts

$ 37 ⁵⁰/₁₀₀

Disbursements $122 ⁰⁰/₁₀₀

The meeting was then Adjourned
